ZERO WASTE SEDBERGH

Suzie Pye

It has been an incredibly busy first month for Zero Waste Sedbergh:

There are now a number of food outlets in Sedbergh who have agreed to offer free water bottle refills. This is a scheme that has been very successful in other towns up and down the country, and I am confident it will work well in Sedbergh. A full list of participating establishments can be found on our Facebook and Twitter pages, and also at zerowastesedbergh.wordpress.com (please do visit these sites for all up to date news on ZWS).

If I look at the single-use plastic in our house, one of the repeat offenders is milk bottles. So it is welcome news that local milkman Liam Kelly is now offering doorstep delivery for Sedbergh residents, in glass bottles, for a trial period. If you would like to know more, or add your order to his round, do contact him ASAP on 07504223968 or email him at liam@lkcomputerservices.co.uk

I have also been in touch with Simply Repair South Lakes to discuss hosting a repair event in Sedbergh later on this year – more news on this in coming weeks.

And you may well have seen in local news that Booths supermarket has made huge strides in tackling single use plastic head-on.

They have pledged to introduce a number of measures in their stores including: a new bag for life using 90% recycled plastic; cotton bags as a reusable solution for fresh produce; phasing out the 5p carrier bag; replacing plastic drinking straws with paper ones; and they are also testing a starch made, compostable veggie bag to replace the plastic ones.

I can't overstate the huge commitment from Booths on this, and I really hope other supermarkets follow suit. I have been in touch with James Hall & Co. Ltd. who run Sedbergh Spar, but at the time of going to print am yet to receive a reply.

And finally, a date for your diary: Friday July 6th will see the Great Cumbrian Litter Pick taking place in all corners of the county – including Sedbergh! We meet in Joss Lane Car Park at 1pm, and will be finished by 3pm at the latest. Please do come along if you can, and help make Sedbergh cleaner, tidier, and safer for our wildlife.

It has been a whirlwind two months since I elected to represent our ward on South Lakeland District Council.

In May South Lakeland District Council held its AGM, in which I was elected onto the Yorkshire Dales National Park Authority. I'm delighted to be able to represent our beautiful area on this authority.

It is important that we preserve the things that make where we work and live so attractive to visitors as they are crucial to the continuing prosperity of the area. It is essential that we make sensible decisions so younger families can continue to live here, but we also need to make it attractive to those that may want to move into our area. Without this our schools, pubs and shops which are vital aspects for a vibrant, healthy community would suffer.

As your local district councillor on the 21st May I was privileged to see the inaugural early trains stop at Dent Station, the 6:47am to Carlisle and 7:05am to Leeds, arriving at their respective destinations Carlisle at 8:04am and Leeds at 8:33 This is hugely significant for people in our area, opening up new opportunities for work and pleasure. This happened thanks to pressure from local people, Dent Parish Council, our local MP Tim Farron and myself. It shows that together if we campaign on issues we can make change happen.

If there is anything I can help you damage before entering Kirkby Lonsdale and after leaving Sedbergh, within South Lakeland it is the Sedbergh and Kirkby Lonsdale Ward alone which is affected by the annual journey. That makes it our problem.

Let us be honest, the tone of the trouble caused this year has been very different from that around 2009. Then it was invasions of fields with horses and genuine threats of physical violence along the A683. This year it has more been teenagers and young adults marauding through first Kirkby Lonsdale and then Sedbergh. As always South Lakeland's team did excellent work with very limited resources. But, the work expected from Cumbria Highways was delivered both too late

COUNCILLORS CORNER

Kevin Lancaster & Sheila Capstick

It is quite possible to live no more than a couple of miles from the A683 and remain oblivious to the misery caused by travellers journeying to Appleby New Fair. But, sadly, this has been the worst year for trouble for several years. The vanguard entered South Lakeland before the due time and a minority chose to make the most of the excellent weather to cause mayhem within and outside the main towns in our ward. Whilst it is undeniable that elements did great and with the greatest reluctance. It is inevitable in these circumstances that the role of the police service will come into question. Back in the late 2000's there were the Police Committees and operational matters were very much under the control of the then Chief Constable. Until the injustice made it into the national press and a change of Chief Constable there was very little helpful intervention. Now we have Police and Crime Commissioners and I claim some prescience in being one of only five members of the 84 on Cumbria at the time who supported the change.

Our Commissioner, Peter McCall was going to visit Kirkby Lonsdale towards the end of June but because of the pressure from the community, led by Sheila Capstick that was brought forward so he saw for himself the issues in Sedbergh, Kirkby Stephen and Kirkby Lonsdale. His visit will not solve the problem for future years but it will make a contribution towards a solution.

For too long we have relied upon doing the same as in the previous year, with less vigour and less resource: it was inevitable there would come a reckoning time. For next year we need to reconsider our action plans from beginning to end and that must include an examination of the whole legal basis for the policing response to the fair. We will be failing our fellow residents if we do anything less.

TIM FARRON MP

Much of my time over the past months has been taken up trying to get Northern Rail to run a decent service on the Lakes Line. In fact the service is about as bad now as it can be as there simply isn't one. The Minister of Transport, Chris Grayling, allowed Northern to stop running a service on the Lakes Line at all until July. This as we enter into the peak season for tourists and just when school children need to be able to get to school on time for GCSE's and A' levels.

But you, the lucky people of Dent, Garsdale (and even Sedbergh at a push), have managed to get an improved service from Northern. I have no idea why Northern can be so rubbish in one part of the area and so helpful in another but they have been. Mind you perhaps saying that they have been "so helpful" is pushing it a bit. It took a lot of effort by the Dent Parish Council and lots of other local people, and I did what I could to help, but now you can catch a train to Leeds or Carlisle from Dent or Garsdale that gets you into those cities in time for work (or early shopping). This is brilliant news, I doubt that it will turn Dent or Garsdale into "commuter villages" but it should make living and working in the area so much more manageable for everyone. The only problem is that as Dent Station is so far from Dent your day is going to start with a bit of a drive even with this new service.

I had a meeting with the campaign group the Campaign for National Parks the other day to discuss challenges faced by the Yorkshire Dales National Park, along with the Lake District. They are a great organisation who do a lot of work to help National Parks. They have been working hard on the issue of second homes which, as we all know, turns villages into ghost towns during the week, depriving local schools of children and local businesses of customers. To say nothing of pushing up the prices of homes in the area so young folk simply can't afford to live here. I wanted to press them to support my call for local authorities to be able to increase the council tax that they levy on second homes. This would have the dual benefit of discouraging people from buying second homes and providing some extra money for councils like South Lakeland, to build more affordable homes in the area. I was pleased with how positive they were.

Finally, I was really pleased to be elected the chair of the new, all party, Parliamentary Radiotherapy Group. We met for the first time the other day and agreed that the first issues we will campaign on will be getting the amount the NHS spends on radiotherapy treatment up from the current levels of about 5% and, importantly for us here, push the Government to ensure no-one has to travel for more than 45 minutes to get Dent Gala is annual and always takes place on the Bank Holiday Monday at the end of August. It happens on the playing field behind the primary school, in the yard and in the Hall and has taken place in one way or another since the 1960's.

We are planning for this year, there will be "The Painted Bean" selling sweets, and a children's entertainer is booked to entertain in the main ring in the field. Children are invited to dress up and enter the Fancy Dress.

(Theme to be announced soon) . A live band will entertain and the ever popular stuff like coconut shy, pillow fight and races will take place. As will

DENTDALE HEAD TO FOOT

Our outing to Barnard Castle we thought was going to be dogged by thunderstorms, however it only rained on the return journey whilst we were all safely ensconced on the Western Dales Bus, so we all enjoyed a very warm and sunny day, some in the Bowes Museum, some in the castle itself (I did not realise that Richard III was its owner prior to his last fatal battle and eventual burial place under the Leicester car park) and in the rest of the town and to the rather splendid parish church which again was improved by, guess who, Richard III.

Barnard Castle is the sort of place you need to return to, one member told me that the Bowes Museum could have easily taken all day to go around so I think quite of few of us may return in the future.

Councillors, Members of Dent with Cowgill Parish Council and members of the public, all made the early morning journey up to Dent Station on May 21st, to greet the two new services stopping at the station.

Many of your readers will be aware that the 6.47am to Carlisle and the 7.05am to Leeds both now stop at Dent which is a big coup for locals and visitors alike. Dentdale can now say it is a commuter village with trains now arriving in Carlisle and Leeds well before 9am (full timetable on Page 91). Shoppers and tourists too can have a full day in these two cities, and walkers coming to the Dale can arrive early enough to enjoy a full day.

neighbourhood alert

The National Fraud Intelligence Bureau has identified an increasing number of reports submitted to Action Fraud from the public concerning courier fraud.

Fraudsters are contacting victims by telephone and purporting to be a police officer or bank official. To substantiate this claim, the caller might be able to confirm some easily obtainable basic details about the victim such as their full name and address. They may also offer a telephone number for the victim to call to check that they are genuine; this number is not genuine and simply redirects to the fraudster who pretends to be a different person.

After some trust has been established, the fraudster will then, for example, suggest:

- Some money has been removed from a victim's bank account and staff at their local bank branch are responsible.
- Suspects have already been arrested but the "police" need money for evidence.
- A business such as a jewellers or currency exchange is operating fraudulently and they require assistance to help secure evidence.

Victims are then asked to cooperate in an investigation by attending their bank and withdrawing money, withdrawing foreign currency from an exchange or purchasing an expensive item to hand over to a courier for examination who will also be a fraudster. Again, to reassure the victim, a safe word might be communicated to the victim so the courier appears genuine.

At the time of handover, unsuspecting victims are promised the money they've handed over or spent will be reimbursed but in reality there is no further contact and the money is never seen again.

Protect Yourself

Your bank or the police will never:

- Phone and ask you for your PIN or full banking password.
- Ask you to withdraw money to hand over to them for safe-keeping, or send someone to your home to collect cash, PIN, cards or cheque books if you are a victim of fraud.

Don't assume an email or phone

call is authentic

Just because someone knows your basic details (such as your name and address or even your mother's maiden name), it doesn't mean they are genuine. Be mindful of who you trust – criminals may try and trick you into their confidence by telling you that you've been a victim of fraud

Stay in control

If something feels wrong then it is usually right to question it. Have the confidence to refuse unusual requests for personal or financial information.

MUSIC FESTIVAL

Elspeth Griffiths

Grateful thanks from Sedbergh and much further afield to Tony Reed Screen and his excellent team for arranging the Music Festival which was much enjoyed. What a variety of musicians, talent, energy and great enthusiasm and, as to excellence, the whole was exceptional. There was talent as well from local musicians, Sedbergh School and staff, Pepperpot, and attendance of some pupils from Settlebeck School for the performance of the talented Chetham's young musicians.

It takes a long time to prepare and arrange for concerts. Cooks, producers and proofreaders of programmes and so much else have be thanked as well. Mabon and Red Priest praised the organisers and those who cooked and put the musicians up for which they were very thankful.

Again great thanks to you all.

MUSIC FESTIVAL

Stuart Manger

Well, the hills have indeed been vibrantly alive with the sound of music!

The 2018 Sedbergh Music Festival came to a rousing end in - where else? - but St Andrew's Church on Sunday, 17th June with a service led by the Sedbergh School Chapel Choir. It has been many journeys of surprise, discovery and re-acquaintance, a cocktail fizzing with that very special relationship between live audiences and very live performers.

We have had world-class musicians at the very top of their game, and ensembles from all over UK, but especially Cumbria and the North West. And in the audience, too, the smiling, familiar faces of a core of devotees who have booked into Sedbergh for almost every gig in every festival since Deryck Cox started the whole thing in 2000 - which says a lot for how welcome and enthused these returnees have felt.

Highlights? Crikey, where on earth to start? Red Priest's manic virtuosity has to be up there, Tasmin Little and Martin Roscoe's soul-stirring César Franck Sonata, Julian Cann and David Battersby's revelatory York Bowen Sonata, Chet's Christina Thomas's violin piece, The Spookies' 'Dancing Queen' and the men then getting us all on our feet to dance the night away too! There was Peter Noke's mighty Liszt, Sarah Beth Briggs's muscular Debussy, Mabon's joyously infectious toe-tappers, and the wondrous tale of 'Sir Gawain and the Green Knight' from Cornucopia, and Levens Choir's Parry. But as soon as you start listing great moments, the blaze of terrific sessions floods back and it gets even more impossible to choose.

We have had harpists, duos, string trios, string quartets, wind quintets, the extraordinary world of medieval legend, dance and music, songs from the shows, songs from opera, poetry reading, notable choirs, our own Town Band, our own Town Orchestra. We have had smashing lunches and suppers from a ferociously hard-working catering team. My season ticket worked it out that I spent less than £4 a concert! And that's what I call a right good bargain.

The big names drew marginally smaller audiences than heretofore, but we were constantly surprised by lunchtime numbers, and never disappointed by the sincere enthusiasm of those audiences. We'd have liked far more young people – after all, the future of ALL musics of every kind is in their hands – but we do fully understand exam pressures on schools. Nevertheless, if you have Huge awed thanks to the organising team who worked frighteningly hard for two years behind the scenes with agents and performers, exploiting social media for PR, fixing accommodation for tired stars, writing for newspapers, doing interviews for radio stations, dashing to and from rail stations to meet soloists, kept cooking, washing-up, doling cushions and smiling. Our choir Lakeland Voices once again had an excellent visit to our twin town Zreče, and other parts of Slovenia on our recent tour.

We now sing over a dozen songs in 4 part harmony - the narodni pesmi, the national folk songs of Slovenia - which are well known by most Slovenians over a certain age (in the way that many of our national folk songs are well known by those who

The advantage of singing these songs is that everywhere we went complete strangers were able to join us in the singing, many of those we met not just knowing the tune, but also harmony parts from these well known arrangements. Walking up from Zreče to sing on the Brinjeva Gora with our friends, on trails to the mountain lodges in the Triglav national park, in the church on the island of Bled, at concerts in Bohinj - and a wonderful train ride on the Soca valley railway where all the passengers joined in as we sang Zdravljica as our train glided through this heavenly mountain scenery.

And then one night under these Slavic stars, after our concert in Bohinjska Cesnjica near Triglav, singing the Slovenian mountain song Planinska - an anthem to the joys of mountain walking - alongside 100 Slovenian singers from the different choirs who had performed.

have also formed a Slovenian language group which you might like to join. Singing Slovenian songs gives a great introduction to the language and very quickly you find you know words and sentences which can be used in conversation. We're not alone in using songs as an aid to learning - on our recent visit to Ljubljana we joined an English language class where they use English songs to teach the language. In our language group there is an opportunity to see how the sentences are formed, with more formal instruction in grammar and vocabulary.

Sedbergh and Zreče are now at the centre of a wide web of choirs which encompass a large area throughout Slovenia, Northern England and Scotland - in part because visitors to or from Zreče and Sedbergh like to travel further afield, and having choirs to host our visits in these other places allows us to have a more personal visit than just being tourists and sightseers. Although we are based in Sedbergh, our singers are drawn from those who love Slovenia from across South Lakeland - all are welcome equally, though perhaps those from Sedbergh even more equally!

As we sing in one of our songs: "Naj v srcu ni strahu, tujev ni tu, le prijatelji, ki him se ne poznaš," which the Slovene scholars among you will instantly recognise as: "Let your heart feel no fear, for there's no strangers here, just friends that you never knew."

SEDBERGH & DISTRICT HISTORY SOCIETY

Julie Leigh

Our first summer outing of 2018 was to Furness Abbey which is situated in the outskirts of Barrow-in-Furness. Its majestic towering ruins provided an interesting comparison with Rievaulx Abbey which had featured in our 2017 programme of visits. Like Rievaulx, Furness Abbey is surrounded by woodland (in this case called the 'vale of nightshade'). The layout of the two abbeys is similar.

However, the main difference between the two abbeys is that the chief building material at Furness is striking red sandstone. The softness of the stone has led to considerable crumbling in some areas of the abbey and there are numerous examples of reparations to be seen. Other conservation work has been necessary following the discovery of serious cracks in some walls which could have resulted in parts of the building sinking into the soft ground.

The Abbey was founded in 1124 by a group of French monks. Although it was originally built for the Order of Savigny, it later became second in importance only to Fountains Abbey as a Cistercian establishment. Over the next few centuries it became very wealthy and owned much of south Cumbria as well as territory in Ireland and the Isle of Man. It survived many raids by bands of marauding Scots until it became the first large abbey to be dissolved in the reign of Henry VIII. Soon after the current abbot Roger Pyke surrendered to the King's Agent the demolition of the buildings began.

We were lucky to be given a tour of the site by Jill Jepson who is an excellent guide. She began by showing us some of the artefacts that had been discovered during some archaeological work which had taken place when emergency repairs were being carried out in 2012. Most importantly, the skeleton of an abbot had been unearthed. He had been buried with a very rare mediaeval gilded crosier and jewelled ring. Evidence about the abbot's health and lifestyle has been discovered from detailed examination of his bones.

Jill led us through the extensive ruins, identifying the different parts of the monastery. The great abbey church which still stands to its full soaring height in some places is very impressive. Other notable buildings are the ornately decorated chapter house and the large rectangular cloister. Dormitory, refectory, parlour, abbot's lodging and the living quarters of the lay brothers have also been identified.

Jill's introduction to Furness Abbey which was very detailed and interesting kept us engrossed and provided us with a memorable afternoon.

LADIES NFU

At the beginning of the meeting on the 15th May members had a short presentation from Dave Smith appealing for help from the local community to help keep Farfield Mill open and running.

There are far fewer grants now available for places such as Farfield, which has had a lot of problems in the past and has a lot of historic debt.

Changes are already taking place to try and improve the situation. A new manager has been appointed, local schools are getting involved, over 20 studios are let and in September, shares, at £1 each are being launched. People are being urged to get involved either as individuals or groups to support this venture.

Following this, Robin Sandys-Clarke gave a talk, illustrated with slides, about alpacas and his involvement and experiences with them over the past 18 years.

After quite a few questions he was thanked by Barbara Escolme for a most amusing and entertaining talk. A short meeting followed.

The coffee morning on 23rd May raised over £340 for Bay Search and Rescue.

The summer outing in June is to Appleby Castle, for a conducted tour of the Castle and gardens followed by afternoon tea.

The next meeting will be on September 18th at 7.30pm when the talk will be about the Fell Pony

Our members have been out and about in the past month without ever setting foot in our People's Hall base! On May 17th about seven members of the walking group plus one dog met at Arnside for a level walk along the rather muddy shoreline to Holgates Holiday Park, thrilled to spot an elegant little egret pecking in the mud on the way past the nature reserve. We then turned upwards towards Arnside Knott, stopping to eat our picnic lunch not far from Arnside Tower, but parted company at the main road where two of us who had climbed the Knott in our younger days (!) made our way leisurely back into Arnside to book a café table while the more energetic members continued up the Knott to admire the wonderful views across the estuary to the Lakeland Fells. We all finished the afternoon with tea and cake in one of the sea-front cafés. Many thanks go to Ellen for organising a most enjoyable walk.

By May 21st we were all accustomed to glorious summer weather and set off dressed accordingly for Dent Memorial Hall for the Lune Valley Group Meeting. We were a bit concerned by heavy clouds gathering on the fells as we rounded the bend into Dentdale and sure enough a few spots of rain were falling as we reached the Hall but later arrivals were caught in much heavier rain. We were entertained by the Burneside Ukelele Band who took us down Memory Lane by playing a lot of songs which many of us recognised from our youth. The WI competition, consisting of composing words on a WI theme sung to the tune of the chorus of "Side by Side" was won by Dent WI. (If there had been a Bravery award it would have been won by Sedbergh WI's intrepid duo, Anne Petyl and Sandra Gold-Wood, who, dressed up in black and white suits and bow ties, took to the stage for their rendition – as we were expecting everyone to have to do: all the other WI groups chickened out of this and just sang their songs from the tables they were sitting round!) Anyway, congratulations to Dent for winning the cup and also for providing a splendid supper: thank you very much for your hospitality. On our departure, the heavens opened again with torrential rain and I'm sure a lot of us won't forget the drenching we experienced before reaching our cars!

The Western Dales minibus, ably driven by Barbara from Dent, took us for our Summer Outing on June 13 to Lancaster Grand Theatre for a backstage tour. The theatre manager, Carol Williamson, told us that there had been a theatre on that spot since 1782 when Lancaster was a busy

In 1908 the theatre burnt down to a shell but within 7 months it had been rebuilt and was ready for use – amazing compared with today when plans for an extension have been awaiting approval for years. The current theatre is a delightful intimate space where the audience must feel really caught up in the action. What makes a good book? What makes it enjoyable? Only five members of the book club were available to meet at Moira's house the next day but four of the others had sent comments and scores. With marks ranging from 5 to 8/10 you might have wondered whether we'd read the same book, which was Cumbrian author Jane Emerssen's "The Plain and Simple Truth". It was an easy read but maybe a bit long for the subject matter, some thought; one or two thought that the characters were stereotypical, others that they were convincingly drawn; some liked the descriptions, others thought that the writer was a bit heavy-handed in her use of adjectives and didn't like the style! The setting is basically this: three men all grieving for the same woman meet at her funeral. This meeting will shatter their lives and lifestyles as figurative skeletons are pulled out of family cupboards. If you are a fan of "Who do you think you are?" or "Long Lost Families" or novels on the same sort of theme you will probably enjoy this book, as will family historians; and if you have found a mystery or a skeleton in your own family cupboard you may well be

During the glorious weather, our walking group have enjoyed walks both locally and further afield.

BrIDGET introduced our speaker Laura Harker, a very busy and talented lady. On this occasion she was ready to demonstrate 'Quilling', a craft we were not familiar with. It involves rolling, shaping and glueing strips of paper to create a decorative design to add to our greeting cards. We all enjoyed taking part.

The competition for a decorated wooden spoon was won by Audrey with Liz second. And Kendall won the raffle prize.

Dentdale W.I. were hostesses for the Group Meeting. Six members attended and were entertained by the Bryce Street Strummers, a ukelele band. The competition was to compose alternative lyrics for the well-known tune "Side-by-Side". Following this singing performance, Dentdale W.I., were announced winners of the Lune Valley group of W.I.'s, who were present and had taken part. The competition was then presented to them. A lovely buffet supper was served in true W.I. style, which brought the evening to a close.

KILLINGTON WI.

THE AFTERNOON W I FOR THE ENTIRE DISTRICT

Wendy Fraser-Urquhart

Wordsworth is my second favourite poet, (Browning precedes), so I was particularly delighted to be making my first visit to Dove Cottage in Grasmere. This was the destination for our summer outing. After more than a week of glorious weather the day dawned rather cloudy - so much more pleasant for travelling. We arrived at Grasmere about noon and were greeted by our enthusiastic guide. Some of our company had arrived super-promptly and already managed an early coffee. On entering Dove Cottage the first thing which struck us all was how dark it was. Dark oak panelling lined the wall of the small living room and the tiny windows were set into the hillside. As we were shown around the cottage we realised what a simple existence the Wordsworth family had led here, but what an inspirational life of family and literary friends it had contained. William Wordsworth had hated writing at a desk and we saw the very chair in which he had sat with his manuscripts on his knee to pen his poems. My English teacher would not have approved of that! After our house tour, or rather "cottage tour", we looked around the museum and shop but were not tempted by the numerous 'daffodil' mementos. We crossed the road to the lakeside hotel where our repast was waiting for us. In my memory the hotel was called "The Prince of Wales", but now it has been updated to "The Daffodil Hotel", having been taken over and modernised. Sadly, soon after the major works were finished, Storm Desmond flooded it all so it was back to square one. We partook of a "light afternoon tea", and very delicious it was. Despite having foregone lunch we were all "stoufed" by the time the board was cleared. The company and the conversation were worthy of anything the Wordsworth family could have produced. Our thanks go particularly to Marion Wood, Chief Organiser, and to Sally Cragg who once again provided a favourable direct line to the weather gods.

Our next Killington WI endeavour will be our annual coffee morning in June. Thank you for your support. (presumed!) I assume that my Lemon Drizzle Cake was fought over as usual! Our next official "sit down on our bottoms meeting" in the committee room at the People's Hall will be on Tuesday 10th July at 2-00pm. The speaker will be Shirley Crisp whose topic is "British from the Bottoms Up" WOW!

GALA THANK YOU EVENING

Sandra Gold-Wood

Hi Folks, I hope most of you have received or picked up your invitation to the Gala Evening on Friday 13th July organised by the People's Hall committee. The event is by way of a big thank you to the community for all the support it has and continues to receive.

If you haven't been to the PH recently then you will not have seen the new stage and hall curtains which now sit beautifully in place. That in itself is a good enough reason to come along on top of which there is no charge for the event.

The Gala Evening begins at 6.30pm. A Light Buffet will be available from 7pm followed by an Auction at 8pm. Here are just a few of the Lots on offer; Food Hamper, a Chocaholic Hamper, sailing on Killington Lake and Lake Windermere, Gardening, half a Pig from Fell Farm, House of Commons wine, Men's Retro Burberry Suits, a very large bottle of Champagne, a wonderful Piper for your birthday, wedding or even funeral. Plus, much more.

After you have emptied your bank account bidding on all the Lots enthusiastically encouraged by our very own Kev Kendal. Dennis Whicker will be helping to make you poorer with his exciting 'Chorley Raffle'. It's difficult to described exactly how it works but its lots of fun you will, if you win get the item at a very fair price.

Then it will be time for the Community Awards.

If you have not yet filled in a nomination form you can find one

WOOLS OF CUMBRIA CARPETS

John Barraclough

In 2008, Wools of Cumbria Carpets started up, fulfilling a long-standing ambition to find a good use for Rough Fell, Swaledale and Herdwick wool. After many years of spinning wools from all over the world, John & Sally Barraclough already knew that these 'worthless coarse grey wools' made outstanding high-performance carpets.

So, they moved in 2013 from their carpet yarn manufacturing background in West Yorkshire to Sedbergh. The main purpose of this was to establish a proper base for the business which offers pure wool broadloom carpets & rugs made entirely from Rough Fell, Swaledale and Herdwick sheep direct to the domestic and commercial end user all over the UK.

Using small mills, whose skills and quality production systems are well-known to us, graded wool is processed into yarn in Yorkshire and carpets are manufactured by two companies in Lancashire and warehoused in Kendal. From here, they are cut and then despatched to customers all over the UK.

In 2017, their son Charles joined the business and developments under his control have included taking on the shop and warehouse in Kendal from its previous owner, where we can more effectively showcase our products as well as continue to sell its popular carpets and rugs.

Positioning the business in Cumbria has enabled the Company to support Sheep Breeders' Associations and their events, exhibit at local and trade shows and give credibility to the eco-sustainable concept of using local wools to produce our products all within 100 miles of the centre of the county.

The Company is proud to be using fleeces from the hill sheep of Cumbria to produce breed-specific truly natural, healthy British carpets and give back to the respective sheep Breeders' Associations for every square metre that it sells. It believes firmly that the wools from these sheep produce some of the best quality hard-wearing carpets that are available and is determined that the demand for the wools will continue to raise wool prices to a level which is workable for the future of our upland farmers.

FAMILY MUSINGS

Sarah

May has been a busy month and the weather glorious, most days we ate every meal outside in the sunshine and when the grandchildren came we had fun in the sun. With so many play things and a willow dome there is always something to play around. However the train track still remains the favourite and for a week it took up residence on the dining table and as I mentioned we ate outside. Or on top of it!

June looks busy too with people coming to stay and fun things going on along with the mundane.

Gardening seems to have taken over from writing but that is still a big part of my life. As well as writing a novel and short stories I had a phase of writing letters to publications and had one printed in a magazine and won a tin of Tea! Another letter short listed for a national paper but unfortunately not used. I will keep at it. I have a plan to write a book about the history of the formation of the Memorial Hall in Dent and reading the original minutes is fascinating, it will take time but will be done. If anyone has memories or photos to share do get in touch.

My weekly trips to Hull are on hold at present which gives me more time to pursue pleasant pastimes closer to home. Sorting out clutter, pulling up weeds, cuddling my cat, baking cakes and of course writing. Playing with our grandchildren is of course everlasting joy as is watching them grow and develop and some of the things they say ... having established I do not have a baby in my tummy one child now considers it their personal drum! Another can now tell me to "sit here Grannie" whereas for a while I was just called "that".
Gorgeous!

Juliet Proctor

Settlebeck School submitted two bids to the Department for Education Condition Improvement Fund this year. Schools can apply annually for capital funding to make improvements to school buildings and facilities. One of our bids was successful, with the school receiving £184,000 to replace windows and doors. We narrowly missed out on the other bid by 3% and hope our appeal will be successful so major work on the roof can also be completed. In addition to this, the school and community have raised over £12,000 since September to upgrade sports facilities this summer. Over the next academic year, the focus will be on improving drainage on the sports fields as for several months of the year they are out of action due to flooding. To begin this project, the DFE has asked the school to be part of a flood resilience assessment pilot programme with no additional cost to the school.

Year 2 had a fantastic day visiting Appleby Castle on the 12th June. We travelled by train from Garsdale station to Appleby. Some of us had never been on a train before so it was very exciting! When we got to Appleby, we met the Mayor, who told us all about Moot Hall and what we could see in there. We had lots of questions! Our favourite activity at the castle was meeting the birds of prey. We saw some of them fly and had an eagle owl glide over us which nearly touched our heads.

We also explored the grounds and the Great Hall of the castle before trying on lots of armour. We ended the day by practising some military drills, then we walked back through the town and up the steep hill to the station where we caught the train back to Garsdale. We really enjoyed our day out because there were lots of fun things to do.

The Prep held its equivalent of the Wilson Run on 9th June known as the Epic. 125 finished after 7 miles and 1200 feet of elevation. The winner was Jamie Macmillan in 50.20. A parent Rob Fielding came in 5th and Mr Fleck came in 11th.

Before half term the 1st Eleven won by 4 wickets against XL, against Bolton by 116 runs, and against Myerscroft with two balls to go, putting themselves into the NWT20 to play Cheadle Hume or Merchant Taylors at a date to be announced. They made hard work of a low target against Lancaster Royal Grammar

Future Events

Speech Day is on 7th July coinciding with the Opening of the Hirst (sports hall) Centre – there are bound to be a lot of cars around as it is also the end of term.

Also on 7th July the Leavers' Ball takes place in the evening, and as forewarned there will be fireworks in the late evening, and the School apologises for any inconvenience this may cause.

The 1st Eleven will be at the Bows Festival between 2 and 4 July.

There will be performances of Trial by July on 2nd July at 2 pm and 3 pm.

The athletes will be at the ESAA Track and Field Championships in Birmingham on 12-14 July.

An expedition to Ladakh will take place during the school holiday.

Much training has been put into this

About 1,000 children are expected to attend the the various courses taking place at the two schools during the summer holidays

Unfortunately there will be no Minor Counties match this August apparently due to the timetable for those matches having to be rearranged.

The Michaelmas term begins on 2nd September.

SEDBERGH PRIMARY SCHOOL

Victorian Week

The first week after Spring Bank Holiday was Victorian week at Sedbergh Primary School. We learned all about how the Victorians lived.

On Thursday we all dressed up as Victorians, even the teachers. We found out that teachers were very strict and gave children the cane if they didn't do as they were told. During the day, to commemorate 100 years since the suffragette movement, we had a visit from Flourish Theatre who held a 'Votes for Women' performance and drama workshop.

We all thought that Victorian clothes were too hot to wear on a warm day!

Scout group celebrates rewarding year!

"What an amazing year we have all had!" so Michael Ryan of 5th/8th Kendal Scout Group told young scouts, leaders and family and friends assembled at their annual Group Council in June. The evening was a celebration of scouting successes over the last twelve months, as well as the chance to welcome new young people into the group.

Several of the young people present were awarded their Chief Scout's Award. Young people in Scouting start their journey to gaining skills for life with the Bronze Award in Beaver Scouts, the Silver Award in Cub Scouts, and the Gold Award in Scouts. Leaders from each section presented one Bronze, seven Silver, and one Gold award, each award marking the culmination of several years of hard work, fun and adventure for the recipients.

After the leaders told the assembly about the great year that each section in the group had had, Michael Ryan, deputising for County Commissioner Eddie Ward, presented Leon Bisland with a Commissioners Commendation for providing exceptional support to his family at a time of difficulty.

But there was one more award to come! Last year, when out on a trip to the swimming baths, Scout Bella Hubbard was the first person to react when a toddler ran away from parents and jumped into deep water. Bella rapidly acted, dived in, and rescued the sinking toddler before anyone else moved.

Already honoured with a Commissioners Commendation, Bella was nominated for and now received the prestigious Chief Scout's Commendation for Meritorious Conduct. This rare honour recognises the outstanding bravery and skill that Bella demonstrated in saving the life of the young child at the pool that day. After the presentation, her father, Cub Scout leader Toby Hubbard said "Both Bella's mum and I are very proud of what she did. She is an amazing young lady!" After watching the presentation, Assistant County Commissioner Matt Sanderson said "Bella's actions are an example to us all. By being always aware of what is going on around us and remembering the life skills that we learn in Scouting, all of us have the potential to help someone as Bella did".

Although he couldn't attend to present the medal in person, Chief Scout Bear Grylls has sent a personal letter to Bella, and afterwards sent this message to 5th/8th Kendal Scout Group "Every child has the right to an adventure. Life is about grabbing opportunities. The prizes don't always go to the biggest, the best and the strongest – they go to those who persevere. These are simple life lessons that Scouting teaches. I want the public to know how Scouting continues to open young people's eyes to a world of extraordinary promise and possibilities."

NEWS FROM THE PEWS

Your Parish Church

*Susan Sharrocks
Tony Reed Screen
Churchwardens*

July is here again. Plans are formulating for the Summer Fair in and around St Andrew's Parish church building. The entertainer, musicians, bouncy castle and gazebos have been booked. We hope to have plenty of stalls and games plus a colourful exhibition of the competition entries from the Primary School children.

Our usual request for a dry sunny day went in a long time ago, but after last year when it rained all day who knows what will happen? In our favour the church is waterproof allowing "business as usual" inside but alas, without the bouncy castle as it is a tad too big to take indoors.

One major ingredient to make the day go with a swing is PEOPLE we cannot do without you! Do come along anytime between 10am and 4pm; bring the children, your next-door neighbour, your friends, your visitors. There should be something for you to enjoy, morning coffee, lunch, afternoon tea, why, you may win a coconut or hook a duck with a little luck on your side.

Saturday 14th July is the date of the Fair.

We hope it will be a good day, with lots of smiling faces of people enjoying themselves.

We also hope to see you there.

CUP CAKE DAY

Alan Clowes

Our event which took place on the 14th June at the Cross Keys, Cautley was to raise funds for the Alzheimer's Society to help fund research into the debilitating effects and to find a possible cure.

Between 10.00 and 3.00 tea, coffee and cupcakes were served at no charge but a strategically placed bucket accepted donations. Between 10.00 and 12.30 pm, the Cross Keys was buzzing with visitors which kept our two special waitresses, Liz Newson and Judith Bush, quite busy. Judith had to leave us at lunch time but we were delighted to have Deni Chambers join our team.

The entire day ran without a hitch and we were privileged to have four generations of the Dawson family with us.

My thanks go to my wife Chris and to Eileen Labbate and Alisha Brewer for making and decorating nearly 120 cup cakes. To Liz, Judith and Deni for being honorary waitresses and officiating in the awarding of prizes for the competition winners and for counting the money!

The final total raised was £331.60. Thanks to all who attended, and Dennis, we are saving your cupcake till your diet is finished (much appreciated and congrats Alan et al. Ed.)

MAY WEATHER

Generally May was a pleasant month giving us a bit of everything weather-wise. Temperatures varied from a high of 78.4F (25.78C) to a low of 34.3F (1.28C) and several nights the wind chill took the effective temperature below freezing. No doubt those of you who had seedlings unprotected would have noticed this. Rainfall totalled 40.2 inches (1021mm) for the month but we did have several dry spells, 2 of 5 days and 2 of 4 days. It was quite a breezy month with only 4 days when the gusts did not get into double figures. A maximum of 21.9mph(35.24kph) was recorded with all but 7 days coming from the North West.

May is my favourite month for several reasons. Generally winter is behind us and the burst of new growth is prodigious. I actually got to cast off my wellies in favour of boots!!! The lanes are bursting with growth and colour from bluebells early on to umbels and dandelions later with the reds of campion in the mix. The trees are in full leaf in varying shades of green from the pale whitebeam to the dark holly plus the lovely dark copper beech.. The lilac is fully out and smells gorgeous especially first thing in a morning. The birds are nesting, even the late arriving swallows got round to building a new nest. I destroyed last year's after the mite infection. Where they found their mud was a mystery. I haven't seen swifts or house martins around us. The blue tits have eggs in the old nest box and a new one is being investigated even pecked around the hole so let's hope they use that as well. The oystercatchers have been successful with an early brood down on the river. We are getting woodpeckers regularly feeding on nuts with occasional visits from siskins on the niger seed. My biggest surprise was to see a hedgehog on the drive. Unfortunately it was during the daytime, not a good sign. I moved it into the shade in the undergrowth and it had gone by morning so let's hope it was OK and just hungry.

JULY GARDENING

Elaine Horne

Over that last few years I have tried out a variety of different types of lily in the garden. Some are short lived and seem to best if grown in pots, whereas others are very robust and flower from year to year in the garden

The earliest into bloom here are the sturdy, hardy "Yellow Turk's Cap Lilies" (Lilium pyrenaicum). They have flowers with recurved petals of a clear yellow with maroon spots, and have an overpowering fragrance which is best sniffed from a distance of at least 6 feet away. (They are known affectionately, in our household, as "Stinking Lilies")

Following them into flower are the "Martagon Lillies" (L. martagon). The white flowered ones, which were planted many years ago, always flower here before the purple/pink species. Both are very hardy and robust, but can take a couple of years to settle in and flower from newly planted bulbs.

Yellow Turks Cap and Martagon Lilies are both European species. My favourite American species – another turks cap -is the "Leopard Lily" (L. pardalinum). These crimson/red/orange flowers with large maroon spots, are born on tall stiff stems, 5 – 6 feet tall.

This year I am growing on some baby bulbils from the “Orange Lily” (L. bulbiferum). The bulbils are produced at the bases of the upper leaves and can easily be picked off and planted in trays of compost – just buried under the compost surface – and left to grow on – potting them on as they increase in size - until they reach flowering size. This usually takes at least 3 years but at the end of that time I should have some hardy plants with bright orange/red, cup shaped, upward facing flowers, which I can plant out into the border.

No garden is complete without at least one pot full of “Regal Lilies” (L. regale). The large, white, trumpet shaped flowers of this Chinese species have one of the most intoxicating and delicious fragrances of any plant in the garden. I always place my potfulls beside the garden bench so that I can appreciate them to the full. Regale lilies do not persist for more than 3 or 4 years with me, but the bulbs are easily available and worth replacing from time to time.

All lilies are susceptible to attack from “Lily Beetle”, an insect pest which has spread widely across the UK during the last few decades. It has not yet arrived in my garden, but I have seen it in some Lancashire gardens. Lily Beetles are beautiful, bright red insects, a little longer than a ladybird, which feed on lily leaves and flowers and lay their eggs on while revealing something of the lives of ordinary people at the time of the Roman occupation. The site on farming land in the Lune Gorge was discovered through aerial photography in the 1970s, surveyed in the 1990s, but has not otherwise been examined before.

Graham Hooley of LAS commented: "It is fantastic to be able to examine this intriguing settlement site in detail over a two year period thanks to National Lottery players. We know that the Roman fort, half a mile to the north, was occupied throughout the Roman period (from around 70AD to at least 350AD) but we know little about how the soldiers stationed there interacted with the local population, where their food came from and how they spent their wages. And we know very little about the locals, how they lived, farmed and went about their daily lives. The study will enable local volunteers to get

SEDBERGH COMMUNITY SWIFTS

Tanya & Edmund Hoare

July is a great month for watching swifts, and often it's their screaming we hear even before we see them swooping around the sky. When flying high they are busy feeding, catching insects (such as midges, gnats, aphids) and tiny spiders that they collect in their throat pouches.

It has been a very strange year for swifts, with fewer than usual for the first 3 weeks of May. Then, the weekend of May 19th, suddenly there was a mass influx of swifts, and again this appeared to have happened in many other parts of the country. It almost seemed as if their late return, and the fine weather for several weeks, had made the screaming parties even more frequent and exuberant. The screaming parties remind us of bikers as they hurtle around at roof top level at speed, especially in Main St and Back Lane. And one resident of Bainbridge Rd called that area 'swift central'!

Screaming parties are an indication that there are breeding swifts nearby which is why we are especially keen to hear about places where you see them.

By July both the parents are kept busy feeding the chicks – on average an adult goes in and out of the nest about every 40 minutes. We are pleased to report that swifts are breeding again in the nest bricks at the People's Hall. So far we have confirmed that three pairs are in occupation, but are not yet sure about the fourth. The field at the Peoples Hall is a good place to watch swifts, one evening we counted more than 35 swifts.

It was a relief that at Settlebeck school the swifts that had arrived so early were finally reunited with their mates - although they had to wait for over two weeks before they returned. Three eggs have been laid in one box and two in the other, and we expect the chicks to be in the nests until around 27 – 29 July.

As you read this you will be able to see, via the webcams, the chicks feeding and growing. One of the most exciting activities is when chicks, after about 20 days of age, do vigorous press-ups, pressing down on their wings and lifting their tails. These are wing-strengthening exercises to prepare them for the next few years of living entirely on the wing. Details again for accessing the webcams: at www.settlebeckschool.org, click on the swift tab for instructions.

Most chicks will fledge and make that crucial maiden flight at the end of July or early August to join the adult swifts flying around. The chicks then do not return to the nest, are not fed by the parents, must be fully independent and only a couple of weeks later they will undertake their first long migration back to Africa. So let us make the most of next five weeks and enjoy these wonderful birds before they leave us at the beginning of August.

Our aim is to discover more new nest sites and also to monitor existing sites, so we can get an idea of how they are doing. Would you like to volunteer and help us occasionally, maybe around where you live? You don't need to be an expert, do join us, it would be an enormous help.

The Cumbria Wildlife Trust reserve at Foulshaw Moss is a wonderful, large, water-filled lowland bog and is home to a wide variety of birds and insects, worth a visit in any season. At this time of year visitors flock to the site to see the rare ospreys that have made the site their home for several years. There are only around 200-250 breeding pairs in the whole of the UK, with most in Scotland, so we are incredibly privileged to be able to see them here. They return from Africa in April to breed in the UK and are faithful to their partners and to their nest site. Each year we wait to see if the birds will return and hope that they will nest again on the remote platform provided for them. A visit to the reserve is always a joy, with plenty to see, including rare bog plants and the recently reintroduced white-faced darter dragonfly, but the highlight in the summer is a view of the osprey nest. However, even with the telescope, manned by ever-helpful volunteers on the viewing platform, it is difficult to make out the adult birds, never mind eggs and chicks. Now everyone can see the nest and its occupants in glorious detail on the CWT website thanks to live-streaming from a camera perched right on the side of the nest. By the beginning of June there were 3 delightful (OK very ugly) chicks and with luck and a good season they should be leaving the nest by the end of July, by which time they will be very beautiful, like their parents. Have a look at the website to see them live for yourself. You might see the adults bringing back fish from Morecambe Bay to feed their ever-hungry brood before they all leave for their long migration back to Africa sometime in August.

The Trust also has a live camera watching the beach on its South Walney reserve and last autumn saw seal pups being born there for the first time. Again this camera is streamed live to the website for everyone to see. Seals will haul out on the beach throughout the year and give birth in late autumn so it is worth keeping an eye on the comings and goings. More and more seals are using the beach and hopefully there will be pups again this autumn and winter.

In our own gardens we can also get a private peek at the lives of our own wildlife with cameras in nest boxes and trail cameras are also becoming more affordable. These are triggered by motion during the day and heat at night, to produce some tantalising pictures of the wild animals that share our spaces.

RED SQUIRREL GROUP

The sun shone for the weeks before but on Saturday 2nd of June it rained. We were so unlucky! But still a happy band of hardy red squirrel lovers gathered together - people of all ages, local and otherwise, relaxed in Barbara & Chris Hollett's beautiful home, some amongst them wandered along paths throughout the garden and even higher to the motte and bailey and its wood, where red squirrels have been seen for a couple of years now.

The members of the "Common Ground" Ceilidh band, who practice in Sedbergh, sat in the exquisite stained glass bay window with the picturesque fells behind them sending their cheerful rhythmic ceilidh music all over the house, setting a wonderful atmosphere for people to enjoy. Represented also were the red squirrel children's author, Wendy Ellwood, and the rangers offering discussion, also superb live webcam images to enjoy. The plant sale in the greenhouse was a very popular venue along with afternoon tea, which featured homemade cakes available all afternoon.

The raffle was drawn, with some immense prizes given so generously by Sedbergh's local businesses, thank you, the audience was eager with anticipation. The icing on the cake was that, despite the weather, we have banked £745 ... The rangers need this money to protect and encourage our native reds with food, care and rescue and by reducing the greys where possible with the necessary equipment, feed and fuel. Next month we will let you know how Sedbergh red squirrel group spends the money so kindly given by local people.

Thank you to all those who helped in so many ways... special thanks to our local businesses who were so charitable to our important raffle and everyone who donated; to Lesley who knitted the lovely red squirrel; everyone who baked; to all who served and did it so well; to the efficient raffle organisers; to furniture movers who helped inside and out!; and we are very grateful to the band; the lenders of mugs, long tables etc and Settlebeck School for the use of their tea urn. A very special THANK YOU to Barbara & Chris for the mammoth organisational task they took on, on behalf of the group and for letting us "raid" their home and gardens once again.

Some of the plants in the beds at the Fire Station did not survive the winter and we shall be replacing them in the near future.

We would not be able to create and maintain many of the flower beds and tubs without the support of grants from a number of sources and we must thank the Community Fund and the Parish Council who have been generous with their grants. Thank you very much.

We hope to replace some of the rather well worn planters which will require compost, plants etc, etc, and Authority's Sustainable Development Fund – has reported encouraging news from its nest boxes, on the eve of the UK's first ever Swift Awareness Week (16 – 23 June).

The two swift boxes and cameras that were installed last year at Settlebeck School are both in use – with chicks expected to hatch any day now. There are three eggs in one nest, two eggs in the other. See LIVE footage by clicking <http://www.settlebeck.org/swifts/live.html>

Meanwhile all four internal nest bricks installed in the People's Hall are also occupied by pairs of swifts. A total of 120 nest boxes and internal nest bricks have been put up in Sedbergh and the surrounding area

Four events took place in the National Park (or on its border) during Swift Awareness Week, including a Swift Celebration Evening at St Andrew's Church in Sedbergh.

Tanya Hoare from the Sedbergh Community Swift Group said: "This year the swifts were late. Usually they come in the first week of May, and we spotted the first swift in Sedbergh on the 5th of May. But it wasn't until the 19th of May when they came in any great number. mass influx coinciding with the nice weather – and they were very exuberant.

"Nationally swifts are fast disappearing from our skies. Numbers have fallen by 51 per cent in the past twenty years. The problem is that swifts are faithful to their nest sites and householders and developers aren't aware that swifts are nesting in nooks and crannies inside the eaves. Buildings are re-roofed, refurbished or demolished and when pairs of swifts return to breed in May, they find their nesting places have disappeared.

"What the 'Save Our Swifts' project has shown is that with a little bit of help and awareness from local people, colonies can establish and thrive. These birds – and their 'screaming parties' – bring great pleasure."

Andrea Burden, Sustainable Development Fund officer at the Yorkshire Dales National Park Authority (YDNPA), said: "It is very exciting to see the results of the 'Save Our Swifts' project. Seeing the swifts hurtle about has been one of the highlights of the spring. The nest boxes and bricks, and all the awareness-raising activity such as the cameras at Settlebeck School, have made a huge difference to the swift conservation effort in the Sedbergh area.

The "Save Our Swifts' project received £4,760 from the Sustainable Development Fund. It has also received support from the Yorkshire Dales Millennium Trust and the Sedbergh Community Fund. SDF grants are on offer to individuals, businesses or community groups – and projects can be wide-ranging. The fund has £175,000 to award this financial year and applications are being welcomed Senior Wildlife Conservation Officer at the YDNPA, Tony Sergeant, added: "The Sedbergh Community Swift Group is doing a great job. It would be fantastic if their work could inspire other people, so that we might have swift groups forming across the National Park.

"I'd like to hear from people who have seen large parties of swifts feeding over Dales villages and towns. That could help us to identify areas where it would be worth putting up more swift boxes."

ROYAL BRITISH LEGION GREAT PILGRIMAGE 90

David Parratt

The Royal British Legion is recreating its 1928 pilgrimage to World War One battlefields with thousands of Legion members involved from branches across UK. This will take place between 5th – 9th August 2018. Great Pilgrimage 90 (GP90) will be the largest membership event in the history of the Legion and will mark 90 years since the last Great Pilgrimage.

A decade after the end of World War One, veterans and war widows visited the battlefields of the Somme in France and Ypres in Belgium before marching to the Menin Gate in Ypres on 8th August 1928.

On 8th August 2018, two representatives from each branch of the Legion will carry their Standard and a wreath along the same route in Ypres to the Menin Gate, representing an entire generation that served while defending their country. Keith Wood and Sandra Gold-Wood, both Sedbergh Royal British Legion branch committee members will represent the local community at this event. Attendees will visit WW1 battlefield memorial sites, trenches and cemeteries. On 8th August they will take part in a parade where a wreath from each branch will be placed on the memorial at the Menin Gate. The wreath will contain a special message of Remembrance from the pupils of Sedbergh Primary School. A march past will then take place, observed by civic and military guests from the UK, Europe and Commonwealth countries. Following the service, members will join spectators in the Great Square for an afternoon of comradeship with exhibitions and musical performances.

The training will help property owners to plan, and maybe install, the equipment both in their gardens and up to and into their property. B4RN supplies the materials for property connections but it is the owners' responsibility to organise for the work to be done whether that is by him/herself or by use of a contractor.

The meeting is also for builders/gardeners and anyone interested in carrying out garden and house installations for a fee. Such work is a direct relationship between property owner and the contractor. The local B4RN group would not be involved. It is expected that many property owners will require such a service.

Please let me know

The Saturday Artisan Markets are well under way now. If you've managed to get down you'll have noticed that we've organised more than just excellent self-produced food of all sorts and craft work from the makers themselves. There's been music – May saw the Cumbria Gaita Band parading their pipes and drums – and plenty to do for children, with games and activities in St. Andrew's church yard as well as treasure hunts among the market stalls. Music and children's activities will continue for the rest of the markets.

Why are we doing this, apart from it being a great idea? We want to develop the idea that these Saturdays are 'more than a market'; we hope people will get in the swing of coming into Sedbergh because there is plenty for them, and their children, to do and see. Next year, we hope that we will be able to shut Finkle Street for the markets, which will make things a lot safer and even more interesting, but before we can go to the District Council for permission we have to do two things: consult with those affected and develop the Artisan Markets into a genuine celebration day for Sedbergh. Watch this space. Best wishes

SEDBERGH GOLF COURSE

David Lord

August 2018 will see the 25 anniversary of the opening of the new Sedbergh Golf course, at Catholes -

Abbot Holme, by the late Rt. Hon. The Viscount William Whitelaw . K.T., C.H., M.C., In 1896, seven masters of the Hostel of Sedbergh School, created the first course, over common land, The Riggs, on ground described in The Field magazine as "ideally suited to the playing of golf. In reality, it was very rough and excessively sloped, also grazed by sheep and cattle, eventually needing fenced greens.

Around 2000 golf clubs and societies were established in the UK between 1890 and 1900 as the game became fashionable with the late Victorian middle classes. Several made way early for building development land, and others fell foul of the financial difficulties associated with two World Wars.

Many, including Sedbergh, survived, and the primitive course on The Riggs, with its tiny wooden pavilion, provided social golf for local residents and the students, staff and parents of Sedbergh School for close on 100 years, until the idea in 1991, to create a course on the present beautiful location at Catholes - Abbot Holme, the result of an initiative by two neighbouring farmers.

Twenty five years on, and the current course really is " ideally suited to the playing of golf" set in undulating parkland, with mature oak, ash and birch, the course is on the confluence of the rivers Dee and Rawthey. Both feature prominently over the opening five holes!

Bill Squires, the course architect, created a fine test of golf for all ability levels, memorable par 3's, inviting par 4's, and a couple of seriously challenging par 5's. Manicured fairways and excellent USPGA spec greens facilitate golf in majestic countryside in this most beautiful corner of the Yorkshire Dales National Park.

The long relationship with Sedbergh School persists. Students play regularly and inter-school matches are hosted. Going back to its origins, The Hostel Cup, first presented by those seven Masters in 1896, is still the prize for the Match-Play Champion every year.

In putting together this article, I am obliged for significant help and information from Mr John Pearson, of the British Golf Collectors Society. ☺

COUNTRY HARVEST

Can you bake cakes worthy of a champion? That's the challenge being launched by Country Harvest in Ingleton...and what's more, the Food Hall wants not one but 25 champion cakes to mark its 25th anniversary.

Yorkshire baker and a former winner of TV's Great British Bake Off Nancy Birtwhistle will be the celebrity judge at the fun event alongside Country Harvest owner Mike Clark. The judges will taste each of the 25 cakes in a marquee at Country Harvest on August 9th, before deciding on the top three winners who will receive prizes totalling £450.

Nancy, who won the television show in 2014, is well known for her no-nonsense bakes and the ability to troubleshoot kitchen problems. After the judging on August 9th she will demonstrate how to make an open fruit tart as she discusses pastry and cake making. Tickets for the Perfect Pastry event at 6pm cost £7.50 and include a cream tea to enjoy while watching Nancy's masterclass.

"We think the whole day will be a real celebration of Country Harvest and our 25th anniversary. We'd love 25 people to bake a celebration cake for us...apart from a size restriction it can be any sort of cake and decoration you like and it doesn't have to be connected to Country Harvest at all," said Mike Clark. The winner of the first prize will receive £250 in cash and also be asked to create a special celebration cake for the business's official 25th anniversary on October 20th. "We will provide all the ingredients for that cake, after all we have a fabulous Food Hall to source things from," said Mike.

Anyone wishing to bake a cake should email

suecountryharvest@gmail.com with details about the bake they would like to do. The only rules are that it needs to fit on a cake board measuring a maximum of 12in by 12in and you need to bring it into Country Harvest on the A65 at Ingleton on August 9th, ready for judging at 5pm that day. ☺

CITIZENS ADVICE

I do not think the company that sold me a doorstep loan carried out proper affordability checks and now I cannot afford to pay it back.
What can I do?

The Financial Conduct Authority - which regulates the doorstep loan market - says a loan is unaffordable if you cannot make repayments without borrowing again. Lenders must check your finances and situation to make sure you can pay back the loan.

First complain to your lender. List the ways you think their affordability checks were not properly done, the problems this has caused, and what you would like to happen.

The lender must acknowledge your complaint promptly and has eight weeks to respond fully. They may agree to write off the balance or refund some of the interest you have paid.

If you are not happy with their response, or they don't respond at all, you can complain to the Financial Ombudsman Service using a form on its website.

If they uphold your complaint, they can force the lender to write off the interest or the remainder of the loan, and possibly order them to pay a small amount of compensation. The decision is binding.

The December issue will be my last compilation and the new Team will commence from February 2019 so watch this space for future updates and details.

editor@sedberghlookaround.org.uk

ARTICLES

All articles and reports are inserted for free and photographs are included pending on space. Could text be submitted either typed out our written in BLOCK CAPITALS as sometimes, it can be difficult to established what is written.

ADVERTISING

If you wish to place an Advert in Lookaround, please include the correct money or cheque with the details & place it in the Post Box. A receipt will be issued & left in the Lookaround Tray in the Office for collection or include a SAE.

Our distribution area is the LA10 Postal District which is Sedbergh & the surrounding villages, but it is sent all round the country & the world.

We are published on the 1st of every month (except January).

February to November is printed black ink on white. The December/January issue is in full colour. All copies have a full colour cover to indicate a new issue & photographs are requested from our readers who will be credited.

We do not have whole page adverts but will allow two half page adverts opposite each other.

The Front Page is given priority to Event Adverts relevant for the appropriate month.

You can supply the information & we can create an advert for you. You can supply an example in hard copy & we will reproduce it (please mention if a particular Font is required). You can supply an original using Microsoft Publisher, a Word, a jpg (preferred) or as a PDF (although the quality is reduced when importing it).

PERSONAL MESSAGES

These are £1 each & are for sending Good Wishes, Thank You's, Birthday Greetings, Anniversaries & any other celebration or congratulation. You may also sell personal items - not on a business basis, & also make an appeal for wanted items.

Details with respect to people Passing Away are inserted for free.

Please submit legible writing as many mistakes have been made in the past due to not being able to read the text properly.

GROUPS AND ORGANISATIONS

Any organisation that charges an admission, sells items or requires a donation from the public for anything at their event & wishes to include details in The Lookaround, are requested to place an Advert with us. This can be supported by text which cannot all be included in the advert. Any report after the Event is free. The request for payment for an Advert is to assist with financing The Lookaround which has a large printing expense every month. We feel that the Advertising Rates are very reasonable (for the last 18 years). All Adverts for Events automatically have the details entered into the Diary Page at the rear of The Lookaround. If organisations do not wish to Advertise with us, details of the Event will still appear on the Diary Page, but no text will be inserted.

BUSINESSES

Adverts for the Rent or Sale of property are not Personals & can only be included as a boxed Advert.

If you are a new advertiser in Lookaround & you order 3 or more adverts, you will receive one free advert & can also include some text explaining who you are, what you are, where you are, etc (which can not all go into an advert) up to about 550 words for free.

If you have more than 3 months of advertising, we will automatically send a renewal reminder should you wish to continue. If you order 10 months, we give you one free (making one whole year).

We respectfully request payment with ordering. Please make cheques payable to "Sedbergh & District Lookaround".

Payments by BACS can also be made.

If anyone or any business would like to Sponsor the Birthday Voucher, please contact us. Full credit will be given.

COVER PICTURES

If you have any suitable pictures to go onto the Cover of Lookaround, please send a High Quality copy with the location and your name and you will be credited. Please remember that the picture will be split into two by the Spine so try and get a picture of two halves.
