December 2018

Issue 372

Donation £1

Well here we are after almost 33 years. Who would have thought that from a very small acorn, such a mighty Oak would grow???

It is a sad day in our lives to finish but a happy day that Lookaround will still be put together for the benefit of the community.

Please see relevant information on Pages 6 and 100 referring to the new Team and other information.

LOOKAROUND 2019

Lookaround new team update

We are getting increasingly nervous about taking over from Dennis as our first issue in February looms closer and closer. We have been practising our skills and hope to be able to provide something that will be close to Dennis' brilliant publication.

Because we are splitting the job between several of us I suspect that some items may get lost in transit so please bear with us if by any chance your article or advert disappears – it's not some new editorial policy !!

If you would like to meet us all, we are having our AGM at the White Hart Club on Monday 7th January at 7.30pm in the committee room at the White Hart Club. Please come along and find out about us.

We look forward to working with you all whether you be contributors, advertisers or readers. Please give us feedback – we have quite thick skins.

We will still be using the same contact details as before as published in Lookaround so if you need to get hold of us please use those contacts.

Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

SEDBERGH PARISH COUNCIL

Janey Hassam

Clerk to the Council

This report covers items from the Parish Council meeting on the 8th November 2018. The next meeting is on Thursday 13th December 2018 at 7.30pm in the former URC (Cornerstone) meeting room, Joss Lane, Sedbergh.

And 10th January 2019 at 7.30pm in the Committee Room, Sedbergh People's Hall, Howgill Lane, Sedbergh.

Maryfell parking and play area

Members welcomed plans for the proposed new parking area at Maryfell by South Lakes Housing, noting that a drop-in event would be held for residents to give feedback in due course. All Members were extremely annoyed by a political leaflet which had been delivered around the Maryfell area claiming credit for the proposal. The contents of the leaflet being completely untrue. These plans had resulted following two years of communications by Sedbergh Parish Council with residents and relevant authorities, including SLDC, CCC Highways, YDNPA and South Lakes Housing. Progress for the proposed refurbishment of the play park at Maryfell had also been received and SLDC hope to attend Sedbergh Primary School with plans in due course. They will also meet again with Sedbergh Parish Council and representation from the town,

Markets

Members noted requests from Sedbergh CIC in regard to the Weekly Wednesday Market and the Artisan Markets (Saturdays). Members asked Sedbergh CIC to liaise with the Wednesday market stall holders in regard to a potential repositioning of stalls, in particular, Members wished to highlight pedestrian safety. Safety also applied to the Artisan Markets, and following a request from Sedbergh CIC, Sedbergh Parish Council will liaise with SLDC over potential road closures to accommodate the Artisan Markets in future years – with investigations for feasibility on either Finkle Street or Main Street being considered.

Other Matters

Various other matters were discussed, including: Planning, Amenities and Queen's Garden, where Members noted recent recommendations in regard to the tree inspection report – in particular, the recommendations for some felling of trees at Queen's Garden and a tree at the Playing field. Grants for St Andrew's Church, The Sedbergh Project Manager and Sedbergh & District Chamber of Trade (Late Night Opening) were agreed. A draft Budget for 2019/2020, including consideration of Precept requirements were also discussed, along with payments for the continuing works at the Bowling Green wall and the final payment for the Tennis Courts at Guldrey. Discussions over a sub-lease for the Tennis Courts were also discussed, as well as thoughts on the ancillary parking area next to the Tennis Courts. The informal parking area at Langstone Fell was also discussed and a revised plan for proposed improvements to the area is expected in due course, for further consideration by relevant parties. Problematic parking at the entrance to Castle Garth, Back Lane and Main Street were also discussed.

Please note that members of the public are invited to our monthly Meetings where, as always, they are able to comment or ask questions.

Public Participation is at the beginning of the Agenda and should anyone wish to speak, they would be welcome to attend from 7.30pm.

PEACE AND HARMONY

Philip Johns

The Official Bit: To mark the 100 year commemorations of the end of World War 1, Garsdale Parish Council have donated a bench, engraved with the names of the 9 men from Garsdale who gave their lives in WW1, to the village hall.

Councillor Hamish Wilson organised an evening on November 11th of music, poems and readings to unveil the bench, performed with some panache by Agnes Bracken. A heart-warming mixture of local residents and relatives of the fallen, some travelling long distances, attended, and enjoyed a wonderful, thought provoking evening followed by copious quantities of home baked cakes and tea. At one point there was concern that the village hall was not going to cope with the numbers turning up but eventually seats were found for all of the 80 attendees. Garsdale Parish Council would like to thank Hamish and celloist, Rebecca, for the enormous amount of work undertaken in the research for the readings and music that lead to such a poignant evening. Thanks must also go to the 12 volunteer readers and the army of cake makers.

Other matters concerning the parish council include the ongoing roadworks which closed the A684 for 6 weeks. These works have proved to be much more extensive than originally envisaged and have been extended for an extra 4 weeks. However, much to the relief of our residents, the closure has now been lifted and the residual works are being controlled by traffic lights, allowing through traffic and the school buses to resume their normal routes. The other matter that is occupying councillors' minds is the building of the B4RN network through Garsdale. As at the time of writing this report, the main ducting has reached the village hall, completing 'Route 1', and is now progressing rapidly up the dale as 'Route 2'. The cabinet which will eventually bring everything live, is presently being installed at the village hall. Grisedale, nicknamed 'The Dead Dale', is also having ducting laid and when connected, this dale will literally become 'live' once more. The irony is that one of the most unpopulated and isolated dales in the country will be blessed with the fastest domestic broadband in the world. Again, council would like to thank Tony, the ploughman, and his venerable league of volunteers for their relentless efforts.

The Unofficial Bit: Normally, at this point, I would point out all the idiotic foibles of various organisations but mainly Cumbria County Council. However, against my natural instincts, I have to lavish high praise on one particular company, Eric Wright Construction. These are the guys who have been working extremely hard on restoring the retaining walls along Clough River in Garsdale. They are usually on site by 7.30am, the gaffer commuting from Blackpool 6 days a week, and are often still there after dark. Although the road has been closed during the week, they have never failed to reopen it by Friday evening, every weekend. They have treated local residents courteously and with consideration. Each time one of us needed to pass through the works, they have cleared a path for us to negotiate our way out

Wish you a Merry Christmas

Unfortunately we end the year with sad news we have found a red squirrel with suspected this spreads to other reds very easily and kills them, but doesn't affect the greys, they are the carriers

so Please be vigilant.

and have made sure our lovely post lady, Tiff, has had access to the residences. Ditto with the bin lorries, although the lazy ones in the recycling lorry took advantage of the closure to turn around and head off home for an early finish, meaning that our recycling hasn't been collected for 8 weeks. One particularly thoughtful gesture was the help they gave to the B4RN volunteers. Taking advantage of the road closure, the volunteers were able to dig out the road verge between the burial ground and West Little Town, a distance of around 200 metres. The gaffer organised putting the stoppage signs past the B4RN works for the volunteers' safety and donated umpteen tons of road stone to fill in the verge after ducting was laid. Without this help, B4RN would have had to organise their own road closure and used civils to undertake the work. An estimated £20,000 was saved thanks to Eric Wright's consideration. 'The Street' has now been cleared and although work is continuing around the culvert, peace and harmony has once again descended on Garsdale. However, CCC do not go unscathed, 2 more road culverts have been identified as in danger of collapsing, just a few hundred yards from the present works. Being the inflexible monolith that the council is, there was no effort made to conduct these repairs during the closure meaning the need of further road closures sometime in the future, surely a prime opportunity

TIM FARRON MP

I'm sure much of this is being made of this elsewhere in Lookaround but, as he steps down, I wanted to take this opportunity to thank Dennis for all of his work in editing this magazine over the many many years. Indeed not just editing Lookaround but for everything that he does around Sedbergh.

One of the things I love about living in our part of the country is that it is made up of lots of local communities who really make things happen in their town or village. But even in that context Sedbergh (and Dent) is pretty unique in the way it continues to prosper as a town in its own right and Lookaround plays such an important role in this by keeping you up to date with what is really going on. There really isn't anything quite like Lookaround anywhere across this area. There are parish magazines and a few people making money by selling advertising space in freesheets but your magazine is really the only true community publication I know of. As he enjoys his newly found free time Dennis should feel justifiably proud of everything he has achieved. Long may it continue.

On a personal level what I really value Lookaround for is the opportunity to let you know about things that we are working on around here which get a drowned out in the clamour of national issues. So I can tell you that November was a bit of a health month. By now you should all have received a copy of my health survey. Please take a minute to complete it and send it back to us. It is an important way for me to gauge what is going on with healthcare in South Cumbria.

In the meantime, I know I have been going on about getting radiotherapy treatment at Kendal for what seems like a hundred years, but those of you who know me know I don't give up on things easily and I keep pushing on this. In fact we had some good news this month as, after I had a meeting with bosses at NHS England and indeed the Health Minister, they have announced they are conducting a feasibility study into building a radiotherapy unit in our local hospital. So you never know.

At the other end of the spectrum but still a health related I was very worried to find out that the new contract with search and rescue helicopters does not include them bringing back mountain rescue teams when they complete a mission or, possibly even more upsetting, bringing back dead bodies when missions don't work out as they would wish. I have written to the Transport Minister, Chris Grayling, to ask that he meets with the teams involved to sort it out.

Sheria Capstick

Of all the community activities I have been involved with none has been more stimulating than B4RN, Broadband for the Rural North. Usually my involvement with a project ends once planning permission has been granted and the money allocated. With B4RN the planning was just the beginning. In Cautley and Dowbiggin we now have over 17 km of ducting in the ground and we are nearly there. Good progress has also been made in Frostrow and Garsdale.

Sedbergh parish, working with members of the community, the district and South Lakes Housing is getting on with delivering much needed new car parking on Maryfell. I understand the annoyance of my parish colleagues when others send around leaflets claiming credit for things which they had very little involvement with. It was just the same with Maryfell play park, they are becoming serial offenders. Both are Sedbergh projects organised and run by the Sedbergh community.

I hope that now the river wall in Garsdale Street has been repaired the road though the dale is safe from erosion. It has taken a long time to deal with these major structural problems, about twenty years by my reckoning, beginning with Low Smithy and then continuing with Dandragarth. Of course there will always be problems. There is still the flooding at Badgerdub – why did they re-surface without re-building that very minor culvert ?

I am afraid the county highways still leave a lot to be desired. They concentrate upon reporting problems, you can do that in the middle of the night. The weakness is that some things are reported 17 times, other none. Also the reports are rarely complete or accurate. Structural problems, invisible from the carriageway are rarely reported and when they are they are hard to draw out from the plethora of multiply reported potholes. The model does not work.

I am pleased that once again Dent parish decided to trim back the road sides at the bottom of the dale even if the county opposed the idea. At Sedbergh we have been able to continue the work down to Millthrop bridge. It had become so overgrown that it was downright dangerous and the metalled footway was unusable.

Last month, at very little notice Sheila Capstick and Pat Bell were able to organise an event at the People's Hall to highlight the remaining opportunities offered by LEADER for local rural businesses. I am delighted that as a result of that meeting at least one local business has made a successful application.

Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year

COUNCILOR CORNER

Ian Mitchell

Another busy month has passed, it is now not long until we will be into the festive season. A major concern as we head into this period is the possibility of snow and ice, it is important that if you have a grit bin or a 'grit heap' in your area and it needs replenishing please can you contact Cumbria County Council on 03003 032992 or email highways@cumbria.gov.uk

Whilst trying to find out some information regarding the amount of short term let dwellings and second homes in our area, the issue of 'small business rate relief' came to my attention.

I was astonished to find out that many dwellings designated as "short term lets" pay no council tax at all. However, I must admit to thinking that they must pay business rates, however, how wrong was I, when they are registered as a business, if they have a rateable value of £12,000 or less they pay no business rates at all.

I attended the Yorkshire Dales National Park Planning Committee meeting on the 13th November and I was absolutely delighted that I could cast my vote in favour of building 4 new affordable homes in Arkengarthdale. This is a community-led housing scheme and although it is on the second instance of it happening within the YDNP, we are hopeful that more will follow in other areas. There is land allotted for development in Dent, Sedbergh and Kirkby Lonsdale for housing development.

I would like to take this opportunity to wish you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

WARTIME SACRIFICE

Keith Taylor

PUBLICATION OF NEW LOCAL HISTORY BOOK ON THE DALES 'Wartime Sacrifice in the Yorkshire Dales' by author, Keith Taylor, tells the fascinating story of the part played during the Second World War by the communities of Bedale, Masham, West Tanfield, Grewelthorpe, Crakehall, Hunton, East Hauxwell, the Malhamdale area, Gargrave, Coniston Cold, Long Preston, Hellifield, Settle, Giggleswick (including the School), Clapham, Austwick, Langcliffe, Stainforth, Horton-in-Ribblesdale, Ingleton, High and Low Bentham, Sedbergh and Dentdale.

Through words and pictures, it examines the lives and deaths of over 200 service personnel whose names are inscribed on the many war memorials in these areas and places them back in the dales' villages, towns and landscapes they would have been familiar with. Many of the 485 photographs provide an evocative look at the way of life in these communities during the inter-war years and before the onset of the Second World War. Yet the main theme of the book continues to be the sacrifice made by these men and women who fought for democracy and against fascism during the years 1939-1945.

'Wartime Sacrifice in the Yorkshire Dales' completes the picture painted by the author in his two previous books on the subject:

'Wensleydale Remembered' and 'Swaledale and Wharfedale Remembered'.

LADIES NFU

Caroline Sandys-Clarke

On the 16th October Brenda Head gave us an inspirational talk about her voluntary work in Zambia. Her first involvement was the result of a chat with a friend who suggested Brenda might like to join her on her next trip out to Zambia with The Soap Box Charity. In the event her friend had to drop out at the last minute and so Brenda found herself setting off as the oldest member of the team, not knowing any of the others. The youngest member was 16.

She has now done 3 trips, helped to build a chicken house and paint a church, visited orphanages, slums and a Safari Park. Living conditions have often been very primitive and the food very basic at times, but the Zambians are friendly people speaking English well. Their average age is just 43 and the men can have up to 50 wives, but they are quite idle and the women do most of the work.

Brenda is hoping to do her 4th visit next year and all the money raised from her talks goes back to Zambia.

She was thanked very much by Barbara Escombe.

attended the Annual Council Meeting at Kendal Town Hall for Cumbria Westmorland Federation.

After the minutes of last year's Annual Council Meeting were adopted, we had the statement of Accounts given by the Hon Treasurer who assured us that the finances for the federation were in good shape.

The chairman Ruth Rigg, then gave her report showing just how much happens in the WI during the course of a year. Touching briefly here, the County Fest, Westmorland County show where the Federation had a marquee showcasing Cumbria Westmorland WIs.

There had been a Torchlight procession in a vintage coach through Kendal and a Literary lunch to name the highlights.

Reports were also given by the federation Committees.

Guest Speaker Nichole Flaherty introduced Walking Netball in her roll as Project Manager for England Netball. Apparently, it is rising in popularity but currently only available in Penrith in this area.

Guest Performers were Hope Swings Eternal who entertained us following lunch with a programme of Swing and Jazz including: up a lazy River, Summertime, Georgia, On the sunny side of the street and many more.

The afternoon closed with the Chairman's farewell. Ruth Rigg was given a well deserved standing ovation.

So, on to Dentdale W.I. AGM
The Committee are all willing to stand again with two new members, Rita Smith and Jackie Fisher.
Finances are in good shape

according to Kate Cairns and we were each handed a financial statement.

Thelma gave the Committee's Annual Report of events throughout the last year and all faithfully recorded in Lookaround month by month.

President Sue Owen then thanked the committee and also all members who help in anyway to keep Dentdale running efficiently.

The exciting element of the evening was the competition result. Thelma received the cup with Sue Owen and Chris Taylor second and third.

Finally it was social time with tea and delicious cakes and while we were eating and drinking there was a Swinging Sixties Quiz. The outright

Now - there are three letters to stop you all reading - but please don't. Before I started to write this, I thought about the modern habit of using initial letters instead of full names, particularly names of organisations.

Actually, I was clever enough to type a question into my computer (just to check, you understand! - I did know the answer). "What is the word for using initial letters instead of complete names?" - and was duly rewarded with ACRONYM, as well as being told the difference between abbreviation and acronym. It had been my intention to grumble about it but when I realised that I had used "W I" to head this report, I thought that it might be a case of the pot calling the kettle black.

So here is a brief report of our Annual General Meeting. After welcoming us all, our Secretary, Susan Sharrocks, reminded us of all the happy times we have enjoyed this year. You, of course, have read all about these from our monthly 'narratives'* (replacing the word 'report' by referring to my handy thesaurus -a book containing lots of ANTONYMS.) I can hear you saying, "She's off again". Then, that same Susan, wearing another hat, gave us her President's message and cleverly managed to thank, individually, every single member of the committee. Every single member wishes to thank Susan for her hand on the helm, throughout the year, and are glad to know that she will be willing to keep the ship on the right course again next year. Treasurer Margaret Denton, then assured us that we have the wherewithal to continue our journey. The accounts were adopted unanimously and with thanks to Margaret for all that number crunching. The formal part of the AGM concluded with the committee expressing their willingness to serve for another year.

Ordinary business was also dealt with. Susan welcomed Pat Allen as a prospective member. A spontaneous and tuneful rendering arose to wish Margaret a happy birthday. We were sad to learn of the death of our former member, Rene Smith. We made plans for our Christmas Lunch, although it only seems like five minutes since the last one. We spoke of the Spring Show which will be here before you can turn around. PLEASE will anyone who can spare some buttons from their button box please let us or the Primary School have

Well, now we are going back to the beginning of our meeting! We really started off with our guest speaker/demonstrator, Malcolm Smith from Lancaster whose title was, "Turning the Wood". Our member, Marion Wood, (who we trust is not turning) met Malcolm and his wife Janet, in the gardens of Sizergh Castle where they are all volunteers. Malcolm had inherited wood-turning equipment from his father, and in his retirement had enjoyed developing his skills. He found it most relaxing. He brought along a portable lathe although you would have to be pretty strong to transport it! He demonstrated how he turns a piece of wood into a jolly snowman. Today he was using maple wood though he showed us samples of about twenty other woods he might have used. The native timber has to dry out for a varying number of years, depending on its size. We watched the piece of timber become a snowman, plump body with a round head surmounted by a jaunty bowler hat. The growing snowman was sanded down using ever finer grades of sandpaper, oiled, sealed and finally given a polish. Then another piece of wood produced minute eyes, carrot-shaped nose, and tiny buttons. These bits and pieces were firmly fixed to the body and before our very eyes, Malcolm's chunk of wood had been turned into a high-end snowman. Margaret Denton gave an enthusiastic vote of thanks saying that it was wonderful to see such talent at work.

During our refreshment time we were able to view and buy other items

'Remembering' might be a good theme for this month's report. Several of our members have been involved in making fabric or knitted poppies for the 'Streams of Remembrance' in St Andrew's churchyard to mark the centenary of the end of the First World War. People have worked at home or in WI workshops, culminating in a joint workshop with other poppy makers led by Susan Sharrocks in St Andrew's church room where we wired the knitted poppies onto sticks ready for 'planting' out in the churchyard later, before the Opening Ceremony on November 3rd. It was good to take part in this community effort and to get to know some new people at the same time.

The walking 'group' was reduced to just a pair for the October walk. They were well rewarded for their efforts in climbing Wansfell Pike as it was a perfect sunny day for viewing Windermere and the Lakeland Fells. Hearing about their walk reminded me of my own experience of climbing Wansfell Pike on an extremely memorable Silver Wedding celebration weekend which included our car breaking down on the Honister Pass and being towed to Keswick!

Reduced numbers again for our WI quiz team in the White Hart on October 29th: because of family commitments I was unable to take my place so there were only 3 members to do battle with the other local WI groups. They did well, though, only coming 5 points below the winners.

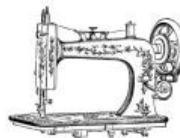

Our AGM on 14th November attracted a higher than usual turnout. Sandra Kemp gave the Treasurer's Report and explained the budget. Sadly, she had to inform us that Andy Denton, who has been our auditor for many years, is now standing down for health reasons, so we now need to find someone else. Our grateful thanks go to Andy for all his help over the years. Ellen Morrison, our Secretary, gave a lively account of all the speakers we have listened to during the year and the outings we have enjoyed together: lots more happy memories! The committee remains the same for 2019 but with some changes of role, but still led by our valued president, Sue Kernahan, fortunately! Thanks were given to Sue Bateman who has done many years of service as Treasurer and committee member but is now retiring.

The book club choice for October was "Divided Inheritance" by Deborah Swift. Starting in 1609 in London, it follows the fortunes of Elspet Leviston whose greatest wish is to continue the success of her father's lace business. All seems in order until a rival with a mysterious past, Zachary Deane, appears on the scene and upsets Elspet's ambitions. The action moves to Spain where the Inquisition is in full swing and a new cast of characters are threatened. Many aspects of the book were well researched but most members of the group agreed that it was much too long though there was a lot of interest in it. A score of about 6.5 was agreed. Many thanks to Valerie for hosting the meeting and providing us with delicious cake and fresh fruit to have with our tea.

PEOPLE'S HALL

A Year in the People's Hall
2018 has been quite a year for the PH.

In January we watched as the front of the People's Hall was updated with smart new steps and distinctive pathway. Everything looks very neat now with attractive flowers and shrubs planted along the beds at the roads edge. Sedbergh School pupils helped with planting and preparing work on the beds as part of their community service.

Also in January it was the Annual Children's party usually run by the Gala group and now taken on by Cornerstone Community Church. Dozens and Dozens of youngsters were fed and entertained and a good time was had by all. The adult helpers were deaf for a few days but they are to be willing to do it all again in 2019.

In February the car park too had been improved. It's hard to look at the PH and imagine how it looked before all the improvements over the last few years.

It was in the chilly days of February that Gym Manager Stuart Wetherell began inviting people to take part in early morning exercise classes.

In March it was the Rose Community Theatre's annual pantomime style show 'Wars of the Noses' which went on despite a freak snow blizzard on the Saturday night.

In April the marvellously traditional 'Spring Show' filled the PH with all kinds of arts, crafts and baking. The whole place buzzed with excitement as the Town Band played and cups were given out. It was a wow with weather to match. There was again a record amount of entries.

In May it was the turn of the Town Band when Barney Proud band secretary organised a dance band night which meant that we all got up dressed up and took to the floor.

Plus, with a community grant and many generous donations from town folk the long serving red curtains were consigned to the recycling and brand new curtains in People's Hall blue went up throughout the PH.

In June the Fell Runners were back with their exhausting event. This is

In July there was 'Gala Night' with an Auction, a Buffet and live music from 'Strawberry Fields' to celebrate and thank the people of Sedbergh for their continuing generosity to the PH. £1500 was raised toward PH funds which will go toward new chairs, glasses and other items to continue the updating.

July is also time for the annual 'Holiday Club' which saw a record number of children attending. The Holiday Club has been running for many years and some of the young people who attended and small

In August it was time for a Wedding when Mary Bird & Jonny Briggs choose to hold their reception in the PH.

There have been quite a few weddings in the Hall over the year and it is hoped that there will be many more there has even been a Christening at the Monthly Worship service which takes place on the first Sunday of the Month throughout the year.

In September there was also the first professional Property Auction which proved a very successful occasion.

In October it was the third 'Apple Day' a real celebration of the community sharing in its bounty. With people bringing along loads of apples from their gardens to be made into juice. Lunches, tea's and cakes were served to a steady flow of people over the day. Advice on growing and identifying apples was also on offer. Nothing was wasted as all the left over apple after the pressing went to those lucky pigs at Farm and Fell at Birks.

In this month the South Lakes District Council also used the PH along with Age UK and the Old Time Dancers.

November turned out to be a very busy with family Fireworks on the 5th arranged by the newly formed Gala committee its entertainment provided by local band 'The Moonlight Shakers'. Then it was the 'Tearfund

Plus, a 'Stretch show organised by music teacher Jude Jackson featuring her young and not so young pupils raising funds for 'Hep the Hero's'.

In December the excellent Spellbound Theatre present 'Wind in the Willows' on 13/14/15 with evening and late afternoon performances. So something for everyone.

Of course there are many other groups using the PH from cyclist to election purposes. Plus there's group such as the WI, the Ladies NFU the Young Farmers, Cecily Robertshaw and her Dog training which shows just how what a flexible facility the PH is.

See you there in 2019. Best wishes from the PH committee.

MARYFELL CAR PARKING

South Lakes housing have been working with Sedbergh Parish Council to find a way to ease the on street parking issues being experienced by the residents of Maryfell.

The Parish Council have sought the opinion of the Yorkshire Dales National Park authority on a possible location for some off-road parking and their response was that this could be acceptable in principle South Lakes Housing have now produced a design which will provide 11 new parking spaces on land it opens to the front of the Maryfell Estate. We will be hosting drop in event at Gladstone House on Fell Close which will give the residence a chance to view the plans and discuss our proposals with the development team prior to a planning application been made.

This will take place on Wednesday the December 5 between 3:30 pm and 6:30 pm.

DECEMBER GARDENING

Elaine Horne

I am not sure who called Hellebores "Christmas Roses" and "Lenten Roses", because they are not roses. Neither, I suppose, are "Prim-roses" and "Rose of Sharon", so I have to assume that, in the olden days, anything with a noticeable and attractive flower might have been so named.

My "Christmas Roses" (Helleborus niger) are currently showing signs of new growth, with flower buds just beginning to emerge and very slowly unfold from below soil level. I keep them in pots – so that they escape the attentions of my resident slug population and so that I can put them on the broad stone windowsill outside my kitchen window and enjoy their flowers through the most inclement winter weather. The pots live out of doors all year round, spending the summer in a lightly shaded spot, and they require very little care. I feed with a slow release fertiliser after flowering and water when things become very dry.

My "Christmas Roses" never make it into flower in time for Christmas. They are more often at their best in February and March, whereas my "Lenten Roses" (Helleborus x hybridus) are more adventurous and are usually opening their flowers amongst the snowdrops in January. I chop off all the tall, last-years leaves down to the base as the new flower stalks grow so that they can be more easily seen.

"Christmas Roses" always have pure white, pink backed petals. "Lenten Roses" can vary in colour from white through cream (with or without crimson spots) to pale pink to dark dusky pink and on to darkest maroon and brownish black. The latter are interesting and unusual but they never seem to be as robust as their paler cousins, and they are best grown at the front edge of a border where the blooms can easily be seen. Otherwise, as with most "black" flowers, the dark flowers can become lost against the soil and amongst the shadows of leaves and stems.

Most Hellebore plants are seed raised, and are very variable in colour, so unless you want (and are thousands of years, yet they grow slowly enough not to be out of place in even a small garden. Holly forms part of many Christmas decorations, but also makes a very good hedge. Juniper is our third native, best known for the use of the berries in flavouring gin. Our fourth native, Scots Pine, really does ned space to show its character.

Trees soak up carbon dioxide from the atmosphere, helping to check climate change. They also bind soil and help to reduce pollution. As deciduous trees enter their winter rest it is good to collect the fallen leaves. Stored damp, perhaps in bags, they will in time rot down to produce an excellent soil improver.

Tree fruits such as apples and nuts form part of our winter diet. Birds feed on berries and other seeds; pigs like acorns. Some trees also provide medicines- aspirin from willow and cancer treatments from yew, for instance. Oaks are another long-lived species, supporting an abundance of wildlife.

Many fungi are associated with trees; some trees rely on root fungi to grow well.

Providing the ground is not too waterlogged or frosty now is a good time to plant a tree. Even a small garden will have room for a rowan or decorative maple. Given more space apple, holly, beech, yew, ash and oak can be grown from seeds or berries.

OCTOBER WEATHER

A fairly damp and breezy month on the whole, with over 4 inches of rain (135mm) and winds in double figures an all but 6 days. Furthermore we only had 3 dry days. Temperatures were reasonable, though we had our first frost of the season. A high of 71.2F (21.7C) and a low of 26.1F (-3.2C) shows we are into autumn. At the end of the month we had some really cold nights if you added on the wind chill factor. Some of my brown sheep were nearly as white as the whites with their covering of frost! Another mink attack has been recorded at this end of Sedbergh, making 7 in all so far, to my knowledge. The first winter visitors have been seen in the shape of Fieldfares in small groups. The usual assortment of birds has been visiting the feeding station. I haven't seen anymore bats or rabbits about recently. Most of the leaves have come down leaving a mammoth clean up operation. The winter jasmine has flowered already and we have a single clump of blossom on the winter cherry we had to cut back hard as we thought we had lost it during the summer drought. The rain has returned the feeding areas back to mud in the field. Starlings are starting to mass during the afternoon. You

One of my favourite things about Christmas is finding the perfect present for a loved one, and watching their reaction as they open it on Christmas day. But as my “to buy for” list grows (siblings get wed and start families), each year I find it harder, less enjoyable, and dare I say it a bit of a chore. I anticipate the gifts I will likely receive from others, and I find Lotions will spend eternity at the back of the bathroom cabinet, candles will sit unburned on the mantelpiece, and the latest celebrity autobiography will likely stay unread on the bookshelf for Christmases to come.

same pot is quite Zero Waste). But there must be an alternative to filling each others houses with "stuff" for the sake of it...

Well here are a few suggestions you may find helpful, for how to gift wisely:

Buy Less: Agree with your family that each of you buys and receives a single gift this year. Put names in a hat, and each draw one person for whom you buy something that they will really appreciate, on behalf of the whole family.

Buy Local: If you are blessed with money to spend at Christmas time, why not support local independent businesses rather than the big high-street brands.

Buy Pre-loved: Many people would love to receive second-hand books, vintage clothes, kitchen equipment... and children don't care if a toy has a label on or not. We are truly blessed in Sedbergh to have some wonderful charity and second-hand shops, so why not give them a Christmas boost?

Make it Yourself: If you own crafty bones, use them! Knit hats, make tree decorations, truffles, cushion covers, handmade soap... the list really is endless and will add a truly personal touch to your giving.

CHURCHES TOGETHER The Problem With Parenting

David Hendrickse

Sedbergh Christian Centre

I've heard it said that, as a parent, you are only as happy as your most unhappy child. That is because you love your children, you are always looking out for their best interests & are only really happy when they are happy. If your children are facing bullies at school - you're unhappy, if they face problems at work - you're unhappy, if they face serious health issues - you're unhappy & worry about them. But if they are coming home from school with high grades - you're happy, if they get married to the love of their life - you're happy, if they have children - you're happy.

My daughter rang me the other day concerned about a friend, who she thought was making some bad choices. She wanted some advice as to what to say to her friend to encourage her to make better decisions. I reflected with her on the decisions her mother & I made when she was a teenager, how it became quite difficult to offer her advice or encouragement to change her behaviour or the way she was thinking. Often, as her parents, we could only watch & pray for her, even though we knew she was making bad decisions which we knew would bring her pain & upset. Sometimes, as a parent, you have to let your children make their own mistakes, even if it is very painful.

When Joseph & Mary went to the Temple for the time of purification, they took Jesus, who was still a baby.

And his father and his mother marvelled at what was said about him. And Simeon blessed them and said to Mary his mother, “Behold, this child is appointed for the fall and rising of many in Israel, and for a sign that is opposed (and a sword will pierce through your own soul also), so that thoughts from many hearts may be revealed.”

Luke 2:29-35 (ESV)

“A sword will pierce through your own soul.” What a statement to make to a new mother! If you’re a parent who’s had children that have struggled with different problems, you understand this idea of a “sword piercing your soul.” But Jesus never did any wrong. The pain that Mary would ultimately experience was when her son was crucified on a cross...

But that pain is nothing compared to the pain our Heavenly Father feels about us when we continually do wrong things, think wrong thoughts & end up hurting ourselves & each other.

John says “For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life.

At the cross the wrath of God met the mercy & love of God. All of our wrong thought, acts & behaviours don't ultimately have to harm us & separate us from our Heavenly Father, but as we look to Christ we can receive forgiveness & a renewed relationship with our Heavenly Father.

NEWS FROM THE DENT PEWS

Rev. Christine Brown

You will have all heard of The Terrible Knitters of Dent, they are still very much alive and knitting; they were called 'Terrible' because they were terribly good and knit balaclavas, socks, finger-less gloves and scarves for the men fighting during the 1st World War. They became famous for their knitting and used a special Dent Knitting Stick.

Hundreds and hundreds of Poppies have been knit by Dent-dale W.I., the Knitters and Natters Group, and the congregations of both St. Andrew's Church Dent and St. John's Church in Cowgill, along with parishioners that lost their generation of young men during the First World War; we even had visitors sending them through the post! Dent school children have painted poppies on pebbles stones which have been used to hold down the cenotaph display of poppies outside the church. The displays of poppies in both Churches tie in with the stream of poppies through the St. Andrew's Church Yard in Sedbergh.

St Andrew's Church in Dent also has a display inside the Church along with photographs, kindly loaned by the Sedbergh History Society; included with this display is a chasuble which belonged to Revd. Peter Bolye's grandfather Revd. Canon Leonard Wilcher Wright, who was a Padre on the Front Line during the First World War; we had so many poppies knitted that we added some to this display. Cluster poppies named with the men who died during this War are also included in this memorial. Without their sacrifices we would not have the freedom we enjoy today: We Will Always Remember Them.

One Hundred Years is an important date to remember just how, even the small villages and hamlets, were affected by the loss of sometimes nearly all of their young men. We must never forget. Services of St. John's Church in Cowgill has been working very hard securing grants and raising funds for redecoration of their church, it now looks beautiful once more, it's nearly finished. Beginning on Saturday 3rd November when the "Streams of Remembrance" was officially opened by Lady Anne Kerr a steady number of people, locals and visitors walked along the "Streams" in the churchyard before spending time studying the detailed and comprehensive displays inside the church. Some of them planted poppies along the "Streams", others sat in the pews with their own thoughts.

The opening ceremony of "Streams" was the culmination of a wonderful community effort to bring about the vision of someone who wanted Sedbergh to do something really special for this particular year, being 100 years since the Armistice and the ending of World War 1.

Roughly 1500 hand made poppies were planted, too many to count paper poppies made up the streams, over 100 silver wire poppies were made for The Royal British Legion was most generous.

The bells were rung at 12.30pm for half an hour as requested by the government. That time was chosen to coincide with the march past at the Cenotaph in London. It was hoped that 1,400 ringers would ring being the number of bellringers who died in WW1.

Not so generous of heart was the person who during the week took money out of the Poppy tin left in church for donations.

Now we are the way to celebrating Christmas. Each house will receive a Christmas card from the Western Dales Mission Community listing all the services and where they will be held.

This year the Nativity Play will be on Christmas Eve as usual at 6pm, a play with a modern slant performed by Settlebeck School.

We shall look forward to welcoming you to the play/services and wish you a Happy and Peaceful Christmas with a bright New Year to follow.

UNITED REFORMED CHURCH

Sedbergh Town Band

Douglas Thomson

It would seem that our community is very keen to see the URC used in the future by and for the community.

The Town Band is very interested in using it as its base but only if it can be part of a wider community initiative. The Band has been in contact with the URC synod and they are keen to see its future in community use.

The Band has submitted a 'Right to Bid' application to SLDC to nominate the URC building to the community asset register. If approved the building cannot be sold for six months giving time for the community to decide if it wants to, and can, make a purchase of the building.

By the time you read this the Band's committee will have already met with a variety of community and group leaders in the Town and surrounding area to discuss the best way forward. One option being considered is the re-creation of Sedbergh White Knights. It was this short lived organisation which was invaluable in saving 72 Main Street for community use, enabling it to continue as a very important hub of communication for the town and surrounding parishes. It is also possible that a Charitable Incorporated Organisation similar to that which now owns 72 Main Street could be created to run the building.

The Band is putting together a working group to come up with an imaginative plan for how the URC can best benefit the community while also meeting its own needs. We invite like-minded people to be part of the group. If you can help and/or if you think there are others who should most definitely be involved please let us know. SEDBERGH BOWLING CLUB

Linda Killops 20279

At the end of our bowling season we held our annual supper this year at the Golf Club. 41 members and guests enjoyed a lovely meal and social evening. Our Bowls teams maintained their positions in the Kendal and District League in which we will be entering a B team next year, The Westmorland Seniors and the Rural League.

When our Green closed, we played in Victoria's Floodlight League and finished in second place earning promotion.

The AGM will be on the 21st of February.

This season will be starting mid

March. We all will always welcome new players and complete novices to come and join us in beautiful surroundings, for gentle exercise in this fascinating sport.

We will be holding a free taster sessions which will be advertising in Lookaround and around town.

If you have thought about learning more about Crown Green please watch out for the details.

KICK BOXING

Father and Son Team Return from Athens with Kick Boxing World Titles.

Stuart Byatt

After several months of training (20 hours a week) and dieting and planning at the end of October Kalum

Heywood-Byatt and his dad Stuart Byatt from Sedbergh set off to the World Karate Union World Championships in Athens.

Both fighters train with Cumbria Lau Gar Kung Fu and Kickboxing club, at Castle Street, Kendal where Kalum is presently the senior Kickboxing Instructor and Stuart oversees the Kung Fu.

They had both qualified to represent Team England. A successful tournament was had and Team England placed third on the medal table behind Germany and USA despite have a significantly smaller team.

Kalum, already a 4 time, World Champion had never yet competed as a senior at world level. He started his campaign at the Points Fighting discipline where (with probably with his best ever performance) he lost to a brilliant American who went on to win the competition. A bronze medal at the world championships was not a bad start.

In a tournament style competition after winning three fights', he went on to win a Gold Medal in his strongest discipline Continuous (like boxing but you can kick as well as punch) against an Englishman, returning home World Champion LC Open Age (minus 80KG).

Stuart's aims simply not to make a fool of himself', as at 61 years he would always be giving age even in the veterans as the category which is 45 years plus. To his surprise he reached finals in both disciplines. He was over-powered in his Continuous Final by a very strong German achieving a creditable silver medal.

Having beaten a Malaysian and a German he reached the final against the reigning champion (also a German). The points discipline is 'scored' after each attack and everyone knows the score and the time remaining. It was also on a live feed so his family were watching back in the UK. Never in front until the last 10 seconds he shaved a win 13 points to 11 and also returns home as World Champion +45 year -70KG.

Memories that money can't buy and superb father and son time.

LEST WE FORGET

Old Sedberghian Pilgrimage

Karen BL

A hundred years ago over 1,260 Old Sedberghians, many only 19 or under, took part on active service in the War to end all Wars. They served in Europe, Africa, the Middle East, and the Far East including India and Russia. Of those 256 failed to return. This number does not, of course, include those who did return but had been wounded, many several times, or gassed (360), or who had been Prisoners of War (28), many again among the wounded, making a total number of casualties almost exactly half of those who went.

In 1914 the Old Sedberghian Club determined, as an act of remembrance and pilgrimage, to try to visit every single one of the graves, and the memorials to those whose graves are "Known only to God".

Accordingly a great deal of work was done tracing all the graves and memorials scattered around the world as far as Vladivostok or as near as country church yards in the United Kingdom. Information was also gathered to provide detailed biographies of each of the men. Soil was gathered from the top of Winder and placed in little bags, and little wooden crosses were prepared.

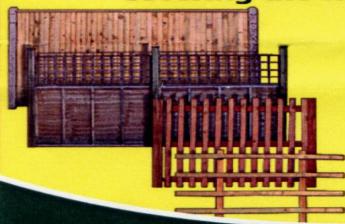

At each burial or memorial a small service was held in memory and the biographies read out. A little of the soil from Winder was placed on the grave together with one of the

Many of the graves in more remote places were visited by individual Old Sedberghians (including that in Vladivostok) either when they happened to be passing the area, or even on holidays specially arranged around such visits. But the major visits were done on an annual pilgrimage of between about 20 and 45 Old Sedberghians, Governors and former Governors, Staff and wives and friends. These were arranged by the Old Sedberghian Club and involved a great deal of organisation and time.

The first pilgrimage took place between 22nd and 24th August 1914 and began the visits of that year by visiting the actual field where the first Old Sedberghian to die, Captain JE Knowles, fell on 23rd August 1914 as they were forced back from Mons, only 19 days after war had been declared. A young OS Marine who had studied the battle gave the party on the spot a detailed description of what happened on that day.

In 2015 the Pilgrimage went to Gallipoli from 26th to 30th October. Fifty nine Sedberghians served in that campaign and 27 did not return – far surpassing the casualty rate on the Western Front. As well as visiting the various beach heads and the cemeteries, a service was held at the Helles Memorial to remember those Sedberghians without graves, and also to remember the eight men from Sedbergh town who fell there. The size of the area fought so bitterly for was a revelation being only 5 miles by 3 ½ miles. Another surprise was the small part the ANZACS played in the overall campaign – though as it involved the whole of their expeditionary force and incurred very heavy casualties it is hardly surprising it has such importance to those countries.

In 2016 the Pilgrimage went to the Somme – and many were surprised to find that the River Somme was not really involved: the fighting took place in the Somme district. Thirty-three Old Sedberghians were killed there or died of their wounds – thirty three are buried in France and one in Harrogate. There are 20 known graves and 12 names appear on the Thiepval Monument as their graves are unknown. Besides visiting some dozen Commonwealth cemeteries a visit was paid to one of the few

German cemeteries

The 2017 Pilgrimage saw participants visiting 18 cemeteries remembering the 57 Old Sedberghians who were lost in 1917. The visit included the Paschendaele, scene of one of the most infamous battles not only for the scale of casualties but also for the mud. The Messines Ridge, scene of the great victory in June 1917, was then crossed for a stop in the Artois to examine battlefields of the Arras Spring Offensive. A tour of the extensive Arras tunnels complex followed by a visit through Doullens where the tide turned leading to the final 100 Days Offensive again to Flanders to visit the graves of those who died in 1918. This time 9 cemeteries were visited, and in addition the horrifyingly enormous cemetery at Tyne Cot at Ypres which contains some 12,000 graves almost two thirds of which are for those whose names are "Known unto God". The surrounding memorial names about 35,000 men whose graves are unknown. Again the men of Sedbergh Town were not forgotten. It was perhaps fitting that the final visit was to a cemetery about the size of a rugby pitch in which 55,000 German soldiers were buried. On the Saturday night three wreaths were laid by the party during the ceremony held every evening at the Menin Gate in Ypres. In the next morning a private service was held in the St George's Memorial Church, where a plaque to the OSs who fell has been placed. An interesting visit was to the spot on a road not far from Mons where a plaque recorded the first shots of the War and on the other side of the road another commemorating the line reached by the Canadian soldiers on 11th November 2018.

There remained some seven graves scattered in Northern France and Germany and these have now been visited. In addition, there are seven men who died in Iraq and although it has not been possible to visit all these, a military ceremony in their memory has been held in Iraq. One final grave of a Belgian refugee who

SETTLEBECK NEWS

Juliet Proctor

Settlebeck School was recognised for its excellent examination results when the school league tables were published in October. The school was rated as the 3rd best school in the county for the amount of progress students make from the end of Year 6 to 11, placing Settlebeck in the top 14% of secondary schools nationally. This fantastic achievement is testament to the hard work of both students and staff at the school and a result we are truly proud of.

On Friday 9th November students at Settlebeck School had the privilege of being part of a truly inspirational and moving Remembrance assembly delivered by veterans Brian Capstick, Nick Cross from the Royal British Legion and Lee Edwards with his service dog 'Angel'. Students focused on the fallen in the two world wars from Sedbergh and District as well as hearing about the impact of PTSD and the important role that service dogs have played in recent conflicts in Afghanistan. The personal accounts and the link to families within the school had a real impact on our young people. We are very grateful to Brian Capstick for organising the event and delivering such a compelling assembly.

On Sunday 11th November, Settlebeck School students had the honour and privilege of being part of the Remembrance Service at St Andrews. Students read two moving poems; the first poem, Last Post by Carol Ann Duffy, was read by Wesley Mills, Head Boy, Jerome Ingham and Harry Dawson, Deputy Head Boys. This was followed by a moving reading of Perhaps by Vera Brittain, read by Head Girl Maisie Gough and Tim Farron MP visited Settlebeck School on Friday 9th November to plant a silver birch tree in the school grounds and talked to students about the importance of trees to combat climate change.

It has been a busy and successful term for sport at Settlebeck. The new courts have seen netball victories against Dallam and The Lakes School, with the Players' Player awards going to Cj and Sienna Middleton, Amelie Pennington and Charlotte Gardner. There have been football victories for both upper and lower school teams against Cartmel Priory and Kirkby Stephen Grammar School. In cross country, there was success for Grace Wells who has been selected for the County squad.

Sunday started with a piper, James Macmillan, playing Battle's O'er at 6 am at the Cloisters to a surprisingly large audience considering the time of day (or night). This was part of a Nationwide memorial. At about 9 am there was a short service at the Boer War Memorial by the Bursar's Office. The main Remembrance Service took place in pouring rain on the Cloisters at 10.40 am. The Royal Horse Artillery, with whom two of the School's VCs served, brought up one of their guns used for salutes which fired at the beginning of the two minute silence and again to bring it to an end. Following the main service, another of dedication of soil from Flanders was held at the flagstaff (again see the separate article.). Brunch was served in the Houses following the services and coffee and tea in the Queen's Hall. Then in the Evening the Remembrance Concerts took place. The Cloisters were decorated with 9 huge poppies representing each of the School Houses

A stunning fireworks display took place on the first night after half terms, which happened this year to be 5th November. It was watched by a large crowd, and there was a magnificent bonfire as well.

By the time this is published the School will have given three performances of A Midsummer Night's Dream in the Brewery Arts Centre

Music

The two performances of the Remembrance concert took place on 11th November, one for the School only and one for the public at large. The concert was extremely moving with a screen running slowly in the background with photo after photo of the boys who never returned. There was a Teatime Concert on 15th November in the Thornely Studio. The School's Christmas concert will take place on 11th December

We were so lucky to be paid a visit by Sedbergh Orchestra this week. Friends from both Dent and Ryelands School in Lancaster joined us to celebrate and listen to music. The Pepperpot Club Orchestra performed as did soloists and groups from our visiting schools - a real treat. Sedbergh Orchestra performed pieces from the Nutcracker Suite and gave us the low down on the different instruments in the orchestra. Many thanks must go to Roland Fudge for conduction and entertainment. The school would also like to thank Shirley and Donald for organising the visit and all the work they do for music in the school. We are also very grateful to the Freda Trott trust for their support of music provision in our school.

Wow! The Band Remembrance Concert Packed St Andrew's Church with an enthusiastic and appreciative audience. Thank you everyone. I think you will agree that the band were once again at their very best. Such a moving flugel solo from Sophie Hall in the 'Theme from Schindler's List' and supported so well on tenor horn by Laura Rozenzweig. A brilliant bagpipes solo from Tony Playfoot in 'Highland Cathedral'. A great contribution from the Rose Community theatre singers in 'Goodnight Saigon'

Thanks go again to all involved at St Andrew's who worked so hard with us yet donated all the proceeds to the appeal that terrific donation was in

visits primary school

Sheila Blackwell

A happy and enjoyable afternoon was held this week at Sedbergh Primary School, where Sedbergh Orchestra played some of Tchaikovsky's Nutcracker Suite to the children of Dent Primary School, Sedbergh Primary School and Rylands Primary School from Lancaster.

Roland Fudge, the conductor, introduced the Orchestra and gave the children a talk on the instruments. A member of each section of the orchestra introduced and demonstrated their own instrument. The Pepperpot Music Makers played their flutes and recorders with Roland & Elizabeth Gruar. The Adult recorder group played followed by a clarinet group from the Lancaster school. The afternoon was rounded off with a violin duet played by a pupil from Dent with her teacher Roland and the full Orchestra playing the Waltz from the Nutcracker.

Comments from some of the children afterwards:

"Awesome", "Very musical", "Really ace afternoon" and from a parent or teacher "I never realised they [the orchestra] were so good"

The players enjoyed it too!

Keith Wood.

The Town Band loves Christmas that's why we always start celebrating early. We will be performing Christmas carols at various times including a venture down to play for those poor people who live at Ingleton.

Our main event however will be our ever popular Christmas concert which will be at St Andrew's Church Sedbergh on Tuesday 4 December (7.30). Do look out for this one and come along. Bring your children or even someone else's children. It's a fun event with the sole intention of entertaining you. We've got many new numbers and lots of prezziess from Father Christmas. Refreshments galore. A happy evening is surely guaranteed.

DENTDALE MEMORIAL HALL

Sarah E Woof (Chairman of Trustees)

On behalf of all the members of the DMH committee I extend grateful thanks to all who helped at or supported Dent Gala in any way whatsoever. We have received a lot of suggestions for Gala 2019 (thank you) are open to more and in January we will start working on Dent Gala 2019!

We will never get everything right or please everyone but hopefully create a day everyone can enjoy.

A great many events take place in the Hall, in just the last month or so there has been a Fashion Show, a Gin Night, Festive Coffee Morning and a jumble sale! We hope to have the Flicks back and are open to other

Learn to Meditate In Sedbergh

Anyone can learn to meditate with a little practice

I am running an introductory course here in Sedbergh.

This course will teach you meditation techniques that can help you to de-stress, relax and improve focus and concentration. Meditating regularly can support well-being, encourage a calm attitude and more enjoyment in life.

The course is suitable for beginners to meditation and those who may have meditated before and would like a refresher.

It will be taught over three sessions on Wednesdays.

FARFIELD MILL

Design in the Dales, The heART of the Mill

Clare Huggonson

The artists and makers at Farfield, who are the 'heART of the Mill', are showcasing their work in the exhibition 'Design in the Dales' for the first time as a group. The exhibition encompasses a wide range of styles and media, with work from weavers, textile artists, painters, printers, engravers and jewellers.

With its Studios all occupied, the artists' community at Farfield Mill is thriving. There is even a waiting list, with local artists queuing for space. There are 20 artists and makers all working under one roof. This has led to a renewed feeling of vitality and creative spirit within Farfield.

Ali Sharman, one of 5 independent weavers at Farfield observes 'when I arrived at Farfield 18 months ago, an exhibition by residents wouldn't have been a proposition. With so many new people the Mill is taking on a new lease of life - there is an increasing sense of community amongst the artists.'

The Mill has welcomed 5 new artists within the past 6 months growing its creative family. 'We feel very lucky to work in such a unique and inspiring environment' Lucy from Twig Pen People commented.

During a visit to the Mill you will be able to see people working in their studios as the building comes alive with art, craft and textiles. The Festive Farfield Weekend 24th and 25th November was expected to be particularly busy with free entry to the Mill.

The exhibition will run until the end of the year.

SINGING IN THE SEASON OF GOODWILL

David Burbidge

What a fantastic year it's been for our singing, and next year looks to be even better with many of the best of this year being repeated.

First was our Slovenia/Scotland singing weekend at the beginning of the year celebrating the songs of the two national poets France Preseren and Rabbie Burns (whose national commemorative days are very close) and many other songs from both countries - next year over this weekend we'll be visited by the Slovenian Consul from Scotland who last came to Sedbergh 5 years ago when the Zreče firemen's choir was visiting.

Then after a few weekends of singing on walks through the hills and inside a Northumberland lighthouse, our choir took off for a week in Slovenia where we sang as we do each year in our twin town Zreče, at the Wild Flower festival in Bohinj, in the capitol Ljubljana - and on a fabulous day singing on the Soca valley railway, with other passengers joining in with our arrangements of well known Slovenian folk songs.

We had some visits to Sedbergh from Slovenia too - with the Waldorf school choir at the beginning of the year, and the Scouts in the summer, closely followed by a small singing group called Smir Papir (scrap of paper) who came with us to Scotland and the island of Jura, where we all sang together at the island's folk festival. Google them and you can see a video I made of their singing.

And we now have a connection with the London Slovenian choir Gallus Aeternus who we sang with in October at the Slovenian embassy - a very heartwarming weekend, where we sang our Slovenian songs with the choir and with other Slovenes living in London, and also sang many of our other songs on a walk through the capitol, ending by singing Tennyson's Crossing the Bar at his grave, commemorating the anniversary of his death. We'll be back again next year to commemorate both our friendship with this choir, and Tennyson Day on October 6.

Our singing continues near Sedbergh with the Cowgill Folk Chorale preparing our seasonal songs which we'll sing at the Dent Folk Carols festival over the first weekend in December (where we have workshops teaching Slovenian carols, as well as many other songs from the UK.) We've had a lovely autumn singing round the fires in the homes of our singers - carols which you will often hear in the pubs of South Yorkshire and North Derbyshire such as Curly Hark (so called because of the twiddly bits in the singing,) Diadem and Shepherds Arise. We have plans to continue our own pub carol singing traditions when we sing them on the first Monday in December at the Sportsman's Inn at Cowgill - please let me know if you'd like to join us.

We're off to sing on the Settle the trains being cancelled due to strike action won't deter us - we're driving up to Ribblehead at lunchtime where we'll sing in the Station Inn - and then after singing inside the station, we'll all join Janet Russell's Settle Voices and Silsden Singers in Settle for an evening round the fire of the Royal Oak.

And on Sunday December 16 we have our annual star lit walk through the winter landscape near Sedbergh singing at the doors of cottages cradled in the dale - do please let us know if you'd like us to call - we only sing at homes where there is a welcome, so if you usually hide behind the sofa when the carol singers come please don't get in touch - we practice for several weeks in advance to create the best music we can so don't want to waste our voices at homes where we're not welcome. We don't make a collection - but sing only to bring you all the festive joy of the season. We will start with singing in the Black Bull hotel where we've been invited to sing at 4.30pm by the fire - do join us and join in if you fancy a good sing. Then we can come and visit your homes and sing for you there if you get in touch - a series of house concerts up the valley.

You can see full details of our events on the

But until we meet again, we wish you all a very merry and melodious Christmas and a happy and harmonious new year.

SEDBERGH SPRING SHOW

Saturday 30th March 2019

Margaret Milburn
& Marion Wood

Christmas is coming and before you catch your breath it will be the Sedbergh Spring Show on 30th March 2019. Time to use the winter evenings to plan your entries! We have added in some new classes and removed a few of the less popular ones.

Our new photography judge for 2019, Joanne Withers says "I am thrilled to have been asked to judge the Sedbergh Spring Show photography class as there is so much creative talent in the area and I am really looking forward to seeing the entries in 2019. As a photographer I love the use of light in images, creative thinking that is not the obvious and attention to detail. Do have a go at entering, because for me, the process of creating images is often more enjoyable no matter what the outcome."

The official entry forms will appear in the shops at the beginning of February, but here is a list of classes to get you thinking. The school classes will be agreed once again with the schools separately. We look forward to lots of entries providing a wonderful display of the talent in Sedbergh.

Any queries please ring Margaret Milburn (20610) or Marion Wood (21385).

TEARFUND QUIZ

Janice Rusling

Thank you to all who joined the fun at the first Tearfund Big Quiz Night in November. It was the first of its kind so as well as having a good time we learned a few things which we can improve on for next year. Easier questions would probably be top of many people's list – we have told the organisers that! Nevertheless it was a fun night and we hope those who missed it will join us next year.

The prize of £50 Sedbergh vouchers, kindly donated by Lookaround and an anonymous donor, was won by the team 'Last of the Summer Wine', and we raised £167.50.

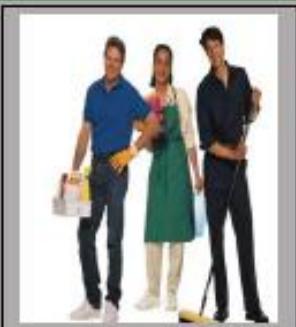

Nationally, 24,117 people took part, in nearly 500 venues so when all the proceeds are in we should be able to report on the total donated to the valuable work of Tearfund.

Years in Prison, which told us how Helen Corpe had originally entered the Prison Service (thanks to her mother, who had been originally involved with voluntary prison visiting) and over that period of time how she had risen through the ranks to be in her present job as a Senior Officer at an Open Prison. Incidentally, Mum had to resign from her job when Helen passed her exams to be a Prison Officer due to perceived conflicts of interest, yet another matriarchal sacrifice!

Following her initial training, she was accepted as part of the operational support at a Young Offender's Institute, which effectively meant controlling the only entry and exit to the premises. Only then after undertaking both written examination and role playing could she then become a fully-fledged prison officer.

The changes that she has seen over the past 21 years were to put it mildly, quite staggering, initially being the only female officer at her first posting, whereas now there are many female officers in many different roles in every prison. The resourcefulness that has been required to undertake all her roles was eye-opening to all present.

All in all, a very interesting and educational talk.

Our next meeting is on December 7th and will be our traditional Christmas Jacobs Join, to which all are cordially invited and we wish all Dentdaliens a Happy Christmas and a Peaceful New Year.

Next year, (is it nearly 2019 already?) we start on January 4th with Why Alpacas with Caroline Sandys-Clarke, mother of our local blacksmith extraordinaire, Lucy; followed by a talk on February 1st from Richard Gledhill about the Spitfire and his father's involvement with it in WW2, so do come along.

SEDBERGH & DISTRICT HISTORY SOCIETY

Mike Beecroft

On 17th October at Dent Memorial Hall Diana Matthews gave a fascinating and stimulating talk entitled 'Log boats to Edwardian Steamboats in the Lake District'.

With a long family background of boat ownership on Windermere stretching back to the 1850s, and having driven her first steamboat at the age of 14, Diana was able to draw on a wealth of personal and familial experience as well as detailed historical research into her exposition which covered the lakes of Derwentwater, Ullswater and Coniston Water in addition to Windermere.

The ruins at Galava, the Roman Fort near the shores of Windermere near Ambleside, show evidence of a water gate, suggesting that some form of navigation was used on the lake 2,000 years ago. At Shap the rotting remains of a boat which could have carried perhaps 3 people were dug up and dated to about 1300AD; then in 1955, when the shallow tarn beneath Kentmere village was being drained (for the extraction of diatomous deposits) a 14-foot long boat was discovered with seats at the bow and stern and evidence of rowlocks. This one was dated to 1320. The tiny island of Ladyholme on Windermere has an ancient chapel, clearly necessitating the transport of materials, whilst since at least the 1400s rowing boats have ferried people, animals and goods across the narrows between Bowness and Sawrey. On Derwentwater evidence on Derwent Isle reveals barges having been used in 1569 for the transport of quarried slate and copper (similarly on Coniston Water), and on Pocklington

Isle in the 1780s a substantial house with its own chapel and boathouse was built.

By the late 18th and early 19th centuries the first tourists began to appear in the Lakes, latterly attracted by the growing reputation of 'Lake Poets' such as Wordsworth and Southey. A variety of weird and wonderful experiences were organised: echoes across the waters from the firing of cannons or the blowing of French horns; horse swimming races; mock naval encounters using model battleships (arranged by Lord Pocklington!); framing the landscape through a mirror; or popular rowing and sailing regattas (in 1860 the Windermere Yacht Club was founded).

1847 turned out to be a pivotal year for tourism with the opening of the first railway line and Windermere Station. This was quickly followed with the Lakeside and Haverthwaite stations on the Furness Railway, Keswick Station on the Cockermouth to Penrith line, and the branch line from Broughton to Coniston. Furthermore, with the advent of steam power the Lakes steamboats captured the tourists' imagination: no fewer than 5,000 passengers sailed on the 'Lord of the Isles' in its first year of operation; other renowned vessels such as 'Lady of the Lake', 'Swan' (built 1869, screw-driven as opposed to paddles), 'Tern', 'Swift' and 'Teal' (still chugging today) continued in the tide of popularity. On Coniston Water after 1859 the Gondola became an attraction, whilst Ullswater had its first boat 'Raven' in 1855 and Derwentwater established its popular 'round the lake' steamer service from Keswick.

Diana Matthews' father founded the Windermere Steamboat Museum in 1977, later (in 2008) handing it to the Lakeland Arts Trust. Within a few weeks it is due to re-open its doors under its new name "The Jetty". This talk has certainly whetted the appetite!

Sedbergh's enthusiasm for fresh local apple juice continues! Our 3rd annual Apple Day which took place in the People's Hall on Saturday 27th October, was really well supported, with local families attending as well as visitors from further afield. A great buzzy atmosphere was created by lots of enthusiastic people pressing apples as well as live music from Common Ground.

We had about 280 Kg of donated apples, which gave 140 litres of juice for the community. The press takes 40Kg of apples and gives 25 litres of juice every 20 minutes, so we pressed at least 600 Kg of apples and made about 400 litres of juice, three times as much as last year! these apples were grown locally, in town gardens and country orchards from Cowgill to Cautley, and from Millthrop to Loftus Hill. Some were brought on the day, while others had been gleaned by COGS members during the autumn.

Outside the Hall, a busy crew worked at the scrapper – the noisy machine for chopping apples into pulp – and the hydropress, which used water pressure to squash the pulp. It is astonishing to see how much juice gushes out. The dry spent pulp was collected for pig food – lucky pigs!

Inside, there was plenty to see and do. Visitors could bring their apples to be identified by expert Andy Gilchrist from SLOG (South Lakeland Orchard Group) Hilary Wilson, another SLOG expert who is part of the team from Acorn Bank and Phil Rainford from Lancashire.

Many people will recognise a Bramley, but who knew that Bloody Ploughman grew in Sedbergh? Enormous Howgate Wonder apples weighing between 400 and 500 grams each were brought in, Andy said he'd never seen such huge apples, another first for Sedbergh. The experts were kept busy giving advice and identifying apples, why not bring your apples next year, you never know, they might be a heritage variety too.

There was a wonderful array of plants to buy from the plant stall, and in the Children's Activity Corner there was a competition for the longest apple peel, as well as other creative crafts, supported by the YDNP Young Rangers. The Sedbergh Beekeepers stall showed us that without bees and their pollinating work, there would be no apples, gorgeous honey from both Garsdale and Dent was sold in abundance.

Expert Composters on the Garden Organic stall showed us the importance of compost, and Cumbria Wildlife Trust reminded everyone of the beauty and richness of our natural surroundings. It was wonderful see the Red Squirrel Group there too, giving lots of information about the spread of the red squirrel community.

Delicious cakes and quiches, tea and coffee were produced by the tireless kitchen team, with cakes, chutneys and jams for sale as well as a well supported raffle. Everyone enjoyed the music of Common Ground, who played catchy tunes with great panache.

On behalf of COGS, grateful thanks to all involved.

future from all of us – and good wishes to the new editorial group, we hope you enjoy working with us.

This is a good place, too, to say thanks to all the volunteers – whether it's people on the front desk while the centre is open, people quietly doing admin tasks or our board of directors, all of whom also volunteer their time – whose effort keeps us open. It really wouldn't be possible to operate the info centre without you.

Lastly, I'd like to say thanks to residents and visitors for their support of the info centre in 2019, whether you've been in with a question, some information for us or to do some shopping. Collecting and distributing information is a big part of what we do, and our trading plays a very big part in keeping us open, so we're glad to see everyone who comes in.

Okay I mentioned shopping, so I hope I can quickly mention that once again we have a stock of Christmas cards in aid of many national charities. They will more or less all go, so if you think you want some please come in soon. We also have the 2019 Sedbergh photographic calendar, which we put together using images donated by some of the town's excellent photographers.

We're already thinking about the 2020 calendar, so if you are thinking of proposing some of your images for it please have a look for the advert in this edition of Lookaround or one of

COFFEE MORNINGS

Tony Reed-Screen

While the long term future of the United Reformed Church building is unknown in the short term it will not be available for coffee mornings in the New Year. To fill the gap

Wednesday Coffee Mornings will be held in St Andrew's Parish Church starting on Wednesday 9 January at the usual time 10.00 am.

From the beginning of February the church will be available for individual organisations to hold their own coffee mornings with the usual stalls for selling produce and raffles. Bookings should be made through Judith Ryder on 01539824379 or Judith_eric@hotmail.com

In the longer term if the United Reformed Church building becomes available it is envisaged that the coffee mornings would return to that venue and the bookings made for St Andrew's would be transferred.

FAMILY MUSINGS

Sarah Woof

Aren't photographs wonderful! I have recently had 4 films developed and on a cold, windy November afternoon was instantly transported back to August and earlier, and September where there must have been endless sunshine. Recently I was asked if we had any old photos of the locality and this led to a very interesting afternoon of looking through albums and boxes. I take a lot of pictures of our grandchildren especially doing fun things like playing in our garden stream where their parents played and where me and my siblings played. Then of course all the photos of the people who fought in the two world wars which have been very prominent recently. Yes, photographs are wonderful.

So to are celebrations. Or they can be. Christmas is top of the list of celebrations for us, remembering the birth of baby Jesus and spending time all together as a family. Last year, hubby and I went away for Christmas to be with M in Hull. We walked hand in hand to a Christmas eve service up the road and returned after midnight to M's, creeping into the house and upstairs to bed like two teenagers out after curfew! We went back in the morning to the service of celebration, helped M as much as she would allow, visited friends and then came home the next day for family gathering. Staying in Dentdale this year.

To all of you who read Musings.. Thank you. To Dennis and Jacky. Thank you both for ALL you have done for "Lookaround ". To the 'new team' welcome and well done for taking on the job. We stand on the threshold of 2019 and I for one am thankful to not know what is ahead but thankfully I know the One who does. 2018 will be remembered for many things, some caught on camera but many not.. realising I had out stayed my welcome with M, ..falling onto a concrete floor and dislocating and breaking my L wrist...not, thankfully photographed! Whatever is ahead for all of us may we walk tall into the New Year, taking with us the best of the memories of 2018, with steady hand and loving heart.

FASCIA

Yvonne Cervetti

So what is this "Fascia" she keeps going on about?

Also see Page 55.

Pronounced 'fasha', "Fascia is more commonly known as the soft tissue component of the connective tissues that run through the entire body as a covering and connecting network" (Robert Schleip, leading expert in field of fascia research, 2017 Fascial Fitness).

Healthy fascia helps our muscles and bones to glide smoothly over each other, gives space, spring and suppleness to our whole body.

However for many of us our lifestyle and environment (home & work) lead to habitual postures, repetitive strain and overloading, add in scar tissue from injuries and surgery and our 3D fascial body-stocking is pulled out of shape and shrinks leading to myofascial trigger points (knots in our muscles 'myo' and surrounding fascia), nerve compression (nerves are coated in fascia) and bones being pulled out of alignment, which can lead not only to stiffness and dysfunction but many chronic pain conditions. But don't despair! We are very lucky to live in an environment with beautiful surroundings to explore. Even if you are unable to hill walk, run, cycle, play sports keep yourself moving indoors and outdoors in as many directions as possible. My "Healthy-Steps" classes are already incorporating lots of movements to keep the fascia hydrated and moving but on Saturday 5th January at the People's Hall I will be running two introductory fascial classes. "Fascial Fitness", developed by Robert Schleip and his wife Divo, teaches us how improve our fascia with 4 principles which have emerged from the scientific research. It is a complement to other styles of training. "FunKi Fascia" is my own creation for those who, like me, love music and dance. Let go of tension with some simple moves to loosen your fascia and have fun! Please come and join me for one or both classes.

The main messages from the first "Feet, Fascia & Function" summit I attended recently in London were to maximise the contact of our feet (as barefoot as possible) with the ground, involve all your senses, vary your movements and have FUN! Happy Christmas everyone!

A very big "Thank You" and a very "Merry Christmas" to all my clients, to all who attend my Healthy-Steps classes at Sedbergh Methodist Hall (9 years in January) and at Barbon village hall (8 years) and to our fantastic editor Dennis Whicker for publishing all these adverts over the years!

on behalf of Sedbergh Gala Group

Friday 2nd November saw the much-anticipated relaunch of Sedbergh Fireworks Evening at the People's Hall.

Alongside the fantastic fireworks display was a full evening of entertainment, with hundreds turning out to enjoy the family-friendly disco, live music, hot food, drinks, magic, and much more.

The logistics of using a new launch site presented some challenges but with careful planning (and some last-minute shepherding to round up wandering livestock...) these were overcome by ourselves and our Cumbrian-based fireworks company Pyroartistry.

The organizers – Sedbergh Gala Group – would like to thank everyone who turned out to support this evening but especially those who gave up valuable time to help run a stall or marshal. These events simply cannot run without them.

We would also like to thank Dean from A1 Audio, The Purple Unicorns and The Moonshine Shakers for generously providing a varied evening of entertainment suitable for all. Thanks also to Sedbergh Wanderers FC for stocking and running the bar throughout the night, and for use of their electrical outlet. Final thanks must go to Steve Longlands for his advice and work on the evening, and to the Parish Council for use of the field.

We have been overwhelmed by the positive feedback from this event but are already working on how to make next year's event even better. If you enjoyed the evening and feel you could be a part of the organisation team please get in touch.

Before then however there is the small matter of Sedbergh Gala. As a small but dedicated Gala Group we can accomplish a lot in terms of planning and preparation for these events, but we will need people on the day to help set up, marshal, man a stall for an hour or so, etc.

Please consider whether you could give a small amount of your time on the day or beforehand to ensure that the Gala and other events remain successful and sustainable.

blogs and videos come on-line. And of course I personally will have more time to pursue other, recently neglected, interests of my own (This is a cliché, but true).

On behalf of myself and the group's committee I should like to thank all those people who posed for photographs when out on the fells, supported the site by advertising on it, or took the trouble to keep me informed of changes to their business details, thereby helping me to keep the various accommodation and other directories up-to-date.

For much of the Sedbergh Gateway's existence there was a hit counter on the home page, and this showed a fairly consistent two-and-a-half to three thousand visits per year. This is of course a very crude statistic, but I like to think that, in its four-and-a-half year life, the Sedbergh Gateway did bring a little more prosperity (and maybe even some fun) to Sedbergh and the surrounding area. That at least was the intention.

Robert Powell, For the Sedbergh Area Walking and Cycling Group.

WALKING & CYCLING GROUP

Website To Close

Robert Powell,

The Sedbergh Gateway website was launched during the summer of 2014 as part of a cunning plan to bring more walkers and cyclists to Sedbergh and its shops and businesses. Unfortunately it seems that the Walking and Cycling Group no longer has the resources to fund the site and it will be closed down in January.

Looking on the bright side, the Walking page of the Sedbergh Gateway has been re-branded and transferred to Carole Nelson's Sleepy Elephant website, and I will be updating it as new walking guides,

DIGGING FOR BRITONS

Community excavations in the Lune Gorge, Tebay

Graham Hooley

As reported in the last Lookaround, Lunesdale Archaeology Society (LAS) is undertaking a major investigation of a prehistoric enclosure site in the Lune Gorge near the known Roman Fort at Low Borrowbridge funded by the Heritage Lottery Fund. The excavations were carried out from 26th September to 12th October and revealed a complex site that had been occupied and modified over many years or centuries.

The early core of the site appears to be Iron Age, possibly dating from as early as 500 or 400BC. Typical of other similar sites in the North West there were no ceramic finds in this part of the enclosure making it difficult to date more precisely. Pottery from the period does not survive well in our region so cannot help with dating. The form of the structures uncovered, however, including round house footings and boundary banks, is strongly suggestive of the period before the Roman occupation. Next year we will return to this part of the site to look for organic remains (such as charcoal from fires or hearths) that could help pin the date down more precisely. What we did find, however, was part of the base of a quernstone, used for grinding cereals. Querns such as this are typical of the Iron Age and continued to be used into the Roman period and later.

In an extension to the enclosure we uncovered the footings of a round house with the remains of a fire or hearth in situ. From this we were able to extract samples of charcoal that will now be sent for radio carbon dating at Durham University. This should tell us when the fire was last in use. Beyond the round house we discovered a cobbled surface with several fragments of broken pottery. These have also been sent for expert analysis but at first glance suggest the vessels date from the first to third centuries AD. This raises the intriguing possibility that the later occupants of the site were there at the same time as Roman soldiers occupied the fort at Low Borrowbridge some half a mile to the north, and may have been trading with them.

We plan to return to the site in May/June next year to extend our trenches and target other features that look as though they could give us more clues about the people living there two thousand years ago. To find out more about the excavations and to see the results of these analyses as we get them please visit our website: www.lunesdale.wordpress.com/reports-and-pictures/high-carlingill-project/. You can also keep up to date with our progress by following us on Instagram (search for 'Lunesdale archaeology'). And if you would like to

'Good time' to apply for SDF grants
Andrew Fagg

The Yorkshire Dales National Park Authority is inviting applications to its Sustainable Development Fund (SDF), which still has nearly £90,000 in the pot for this financial year.

The SDF provides a simple and accessible source of money for a wide range of initiatives.

Recent projects to receive support include Garsdale Village Hall energy efficiency improvements; the restoration of the 19th century 'Book of Bridges'; a 'slow art' project in Swaledale; and a study on visitor traffic management at Malham.

The Authority's SDF officer, Andrea Burden, said: "The SDF is there to support projects that contribute in some way to helping conserve the natural beauty, wildlife or cultural heritage of the National Park, or promote opportunities for people to understand and enjoy those special qualities.

"It's a good time to apply to the fund. So far this financial year we have been able to allocate £85,907 to 15 projects. We would really welcome more applications and would support projects that look to provide multiple benefits and a good legacy."

Some of the grants offered this year include:

£15,820 for visitor infrastructure linking Cumbria Wildlife Trust's Smardale National Nature Reserve with Waitby Greenriggs Reserve

£9,560 for the refurbishment of the interior of Hawes Market House

£3,044 for new interactive displays telling the story of the National Park at Kirkby Lonsdale Tourist Information Centre.

£900 towards a new interpretation panel about the former lead mining industry at Hall Green in Arkengarthdale

Enquirers can get in touch by phone - 01969 652337 or by using the SDF email address – SDF@yorkshiredales.org.uk.

An application form and a set of guidance notes can also be downloaded online: <http://www.yorkshiredales.org.uk/living-and-working/sdf>

The fund is open to individuals, community groups, businesses and the voluntary sector.

B4RN

coming to Sedbergh Town

Douglas Thomson

The all-important B4RN cabinet has now been installed just south of Sid's Barn. As you read this ducting and fibre is being connected to it that will supply the broadband service to Millthrop, Frostrow, Cautley, Dowbiggin, parts of Marthwaite and Garsdale and the Town itself.

Progress has been steady and for some it may seem a tad slow. The ducting has had to be brought up all the way from Middleton avoiding the myriad of utility services that run to the south of Sedbergh. As I write permission is still awaited to cross the new gas pipe.

Birks, Abbot Holme and the Golf Club will be the first to be connected in Sedbergh as they are on the way up to the cabinet. The plan for the rest of the Town is to push out east and west from the cabinet to encircle it with fibre. It can then be fed into the various sectors of the Town – see <http://www.b4sa.org.uk/volunteers>. A challenging task but one we must achieve if Sedbergh is to thrive in this IT age. One town business is already moving from Sedbergh to Killington where the B4RN service is available. Others may soon follow if the service was not to come to the Town. Comcast, who have bought Sky, have confirmed that they intend to end the satellite service next year. This will further slow our BT service.

Interest by residents in Sedbergh in having the B4RN service is increasing rapidly. Also estate agents report prospective house purchasers needing to know which houses have, or will have, B4RN's service before deciding to buy a house.

However, its development in Sedbergh much depends on you. So far two of us have done most of the field work supported by a few others carrying out essential tasks. For it to be a success in Sedbergh we need your help. Do contact me if you can help – douglas@ddathomson.co.uk . The field work is not arduous and can be done by both sexes and I am told I supply excellent tea and cake – even to a man hanging off Plank Bridge – see <https://www.facebook.com/b4aproject/>.

the 15th December 2018. It is at this point we will be able to ascertain whether the project is viable or whether the volunteers can stop working and abandon the project as being unviable.

For the Marthwaite project there is no deadline at present but we need considerably more investment to make the project worthwhile.

There are three investment options, any of which will help the projects to reach their goals:
Purchase ordinary shares in B4RN at £1.00 per share. A person purchasing 1500 shares and over will not be required to pay the £150.00 connection charge. All shares purchased are subject to a 30% tax rebate from HMRC. More information is available on the B4RN website.

Commit to purchasing shares if the project reaches its goal. Complete a share application form and submit it to B4RN with a cheque for the required amount and a covering note indicating that the application is to go into the "Holding Pen" for either Howgill or Marthwaite. The application form and cheque will then be held at the B4RN Offices until such time as the project has reached its target. Each potential investor will then be contacted by a B4RN representative to inform the investor that the cheque for shares is about to be submitted to the Bank for clearing. However if the project does not reach the required funding level all cheques will be returned.

Dig for shares. Those landowners who wish to carry out the work of laying core route ducting will receive payment in B4RN £1.00 shares at the rate of 1.5 shares per metre of laid ducting. You must have all required equipment yourself and the work must be to an adequate standard. The shares so received will be eligible for all the benefits described above. To register to dig for shares please contact the volunteer coordinators or B4RN directly.

There are no technical issues standing between us and a B4RN connection to every household in the area, it is simply a matter of investment. If we miss this opportunity now, the volunteer teams will disband, B4RN will move their focus elsewhere, and we will be stuck in the dark ages for ever.

Please don't delay any longer!

IAN DAWSON

May I thank all of those that have wished Heather and I a long and happy retirement. We have been touched by the overwhelming messages of goodwill.

We have had the great fortune to work and live in a very special community and in a stunningly beautiful area. It seems like only yesterday that we stopped at the top of Black Horse hill and surveyed the 'promised land'! In fact it was 39 years ago. I am doubly fortunate to have passed on the provision of dentistry to the very accomplished Ben Houghton and his team.

Like many other retirees we have made a decision to downsize. But as we both felt that moving away would be a mistake so, if all goes well, we intend to soon move closer to Sedbergh to continue our involvement in its special community.

COLIN'S SEAT

Hilary Hodge

A number of people in Sedbergh kindly sent me messages, usually via Sarah Lewis, that the seat which we had put on the fell for Colin was falling apart. I know that it has been a popular spot to sit, admire the view and contemplate the beauty of the surrounding area, which of course I now very much miss.

Recently I visited with my son and we have replaced the seat with a sturdier one with the following inscription "In loving memory of Colin Barnett 1929 -2010 - Sit here a while and enjoy the view he loved so much"

So I hope many of you will enjoy doing so.

'Working' Retirement

When I retired earlier this year I decided that I would use all the wool and materials I had accumulated over the years from knitting and sewing projects. I mentioned this to a number of friends and typical Sedbergh I received lots of wool and materials, so I have knit scarves of all sizes and colours, aprons of many sizes and colours and handy shopping bags.

I decided that I would hold a stall at the late night opening in Sedbergh which will be 5th December and the last Artisan Market of the year which will be held on 15th December.

As most of the wool and materials have been donated to me I have decided that all proceeds of sale on both dates will be donated to the NWAA. I will myself meet any expenses as my donation to the N.W.A.A.

A number of friends have also decided to make items and contribute them the stall and to those I say a huge thank you for your encouragement. I will name them in an article in Lookaround following both events.

I hope you have time to visit my stall and you feel able to purchase something and enable me to make a reasonable donation to the N.W.A.A.

EDITORS COMMENTS

Well here we are after almost 33 years.

Lookaround started as an idea in my head in 1984 and came to fruition in March 1986 with 4 pages and my, how it has grown into what must be one of the best community publications in the country. This is largely down to everyone that has contributed over the years with all their Stories, Articles Events and Adverts which has made every issue a good read.

During those 33 years, I know that I have upset a few people because of the contents and from those upsets, I have learnt and they have not been repeated but I do apologise to all those that were affected. With hundreds of thousands of entries over the years, I think that there were 5 that caused upsets.

A big Thank You to everyone for their contributions over the years and for all the recent very kind words levied towards myself and Jacky. They are all very much appreciated.

The New Team, headed by Dr Myles Ripley, has been working hard behind the scenes and have produced 'Ghost Copies' of the November and December issues and I don't think that you, the reader, will be disappointed in what they produce in February. However, I made many mistakes over the years and I am sure the new Team will (inadvertently) do the same so please be patient with them and if you see anything that is incorrect, don't criticize but politely let them know so that they don't repeat it.

PHONE NUMBER

The Landline 21960 no longer exists from now so any calls to this number cannot be taken.

The Mobile Number (as on the Front Page) can be easily remembered If you type in 0 (zero) PIN GUY KICK, you will be entering the number which is 07464 895425.

MEETINGS

The next Meeting for the Team will be the AGM which will be held in the White Hart Club from 7:30pm on Monday 7th January when everyone is invited to attend to see/meet the new Team and offer any help or suggestions for future issue.

CALLING ALL ADVERTISERS

From the new Lookaround Team.

We will shortly be contacting all regular advertisers to invite you to set up new contracts for 2019.

New advertisers are of course always welcome too.

Please see our terms and conditions, prices etc following this information

Looking forward to working with you in the New Year.

LOOKAROUND INFORMATION

The following information is current but some details may change with the new Team. Please see the February issue for any updates.

The Sedbergh & District Lookaround is/was edited, published & distributed monthly by Dennis & Jacky Whicker & is printed by Stramongate Press. The content of The Lookaround does not reflect the views of the Editors.

Whilst every effort is made to ensure that information is correct, the Editors cannot accept any responsibility for any inconvenience caused through errors or omissions. If there is an error with your article or advert, it is your turn this month in amongst hundreds of entries each month.

Current Copies are available from Sedbergh Information Centre, Sedbergh Mini Market, Post Office, Spar, Dent Stores & Barbon & by Post (please enquire). Back Copies are available to read at the History Society Archive at 72 Main Street.

All items for Lookaround must be sent to 72 Main Street, Sedbergh or deposited in the Lookaround Post Box there or sent to editor@sedberghlookaround.org.uk

ARTICLES

All articles and reports are inserted for free and photographs are included pending on space. Could text be submitted either typed out our written in BLOCK CAPITALS as sometimes, it can be difficult to established what is written.

ADVERTISING

For the benefit of advertisers, the following information will assist you.

If you wish to place an Advert in Lookaround, please include the correct money or cheque with the details & place it in the Post Box. A receipt will be issued & left in the Lookaround Tray in the Office for collection or include a SAE.

Our distribution area is the LA10 Postal District which is Sedbergh & the surrounding villages, but it is sent all round the country & the world.

We are published on the 1st of every month (except January).

February to November is printed black ink on white. The December/January issue is in full colour. All copies have a full colour cover to indicate a new issue & photographs are requested from our readers who will be credited.

We do not have whole page adverts but will allow two half page adverts opposite each other.

The Front Page is given priority to Event Adverts relevant for the appropriate month.

You can supply the information & we can create an advert for you. You can supply an example in hard copy & we will reproduce it (please mention if a particular Font is required). You can supply an original using Microsoft Publisher, a Word, a jpg (preferred) or as a PDF (although the quality is reduced when importing it).

If you order numerous adverts, the content can be the same every month or it can change if you are seasonal.

The closing date for everything is 15th of every month.

Advertising rates have been updated: December 1991, December 1995, March 1997 & August 1999
(Over 18 years ago.)

PERSONAL MESSAGES

These are £1 each & are for sending Good Wishes, Thank You's, Birthday Greetings, Anniversaries & any other celebration or congratulation. You may also sell personal items - not on a business basis, & also make an appeal for wanted items.

Details with respect to people Passing Away are inserted for free.

Please submit legible writing as many mistakes have been made in the past due to not being able to read the text properly.

GROUPS AND ORGANISATIONS

Any organisation that charges an admission, sells items or requires a donation from the public for anything at their event & wishes to include details in The Lookaround, are requested to place an Advert with us. This can be supported by text which cannot all be included in the advert.

Any report after the Event is free. The request for payment for an Advert is to assist with financing The Lookaround which has a large printing expense every month. We feel that the Advertising Rates are very reasonable (for the last 18 years). All Adverts for Events automatically have the details entered into the Diary Page at the rear of The Lookaround. If organisations do not wish to Advertise with us, details of the Event will still appear on the Diary Page, but no text will be inserted.

BUSINESSES

Adverts for the Rent or Sale of property are not Personals & can only be included as a boxed Advert.

If you are a new advertiser in Lookaround & you order 3 or more adverts, you will receive one free advert & can also include some text explaining who you are, what you are, where you are, etc (which can not all go into an advert) up to about 550 words for free.

If you have more than 3 months of advertising, we will automatically send a renewal reminder should you wish to continue. If you order 10 months, we give you one free (making one whole year).

We respectfully request payment with ordering. Please make cheques payable to "Sedbergh & District Lookaround".

Payments by BACS can also be made.

CAN YOU PLEASE INCLUDE THE INVOICE NUMBER WHEN PAYING BY BACS?

This account is valid from June 2017.

Account: Lookaround
 Account Number: 90931551
 Code: 20-45-45
 Reference: Invoice Number,
 your name or reference.

PLEASE NOTE THAT THESE BANK DETAILS WILL CHANGE IN FEBRUARY

CHILDREN'S BIRTHDAYS

Children's Birthdays are included free on the Birthday Page until their 11th Birthday.

Every month, a randomly selected child will receive a £10 Gift Voucher to be used in Sedbergh or Dent from Lookaround who will receive it by post. For this reason, we require the postal address of each child. If we have no address, they are unable to receive it.

If anyone or any business would like to Sponsor the Birthday Voucher, please contact us. Full credit will be given.

COVER PICTURES

If you have any suitable pictures to go onto the Cover of Lookaround, please send a High Quality copy with the location and your name and you will be credited. Please remember that the picture will be split into two by the Spine so try and get a picture of two halves.
